Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, ed. 8-B, Rockcastle County

William M. Fish was born in Rockcastle County, Ky., November 16, 1828. His father, William Fish, a native of North Carolina, but of English descent, was the eldest son of Thomas and Winnifred (Burney) Fish, natives of England. William Fish, father of our subject, was a farmer in Rockcastle County, Ky. all his life, and was a man of considerable prominence in political and social affairs. About 1820 he was made sheriff of the county. He also served as a Colonel in the State militia. His wife, Annie, was born in Lincoln County, Ky. and was a daughter of Nathaniel Logan, of Irish descent. They had four children, viz: Sarah J., Harriet, William M. and John T.. He and his wife lived to a good old age, and died in Rockcastle County, members of the Christian Church. Col. William Fish had been married before he married Annie Logan,--married Sallie Maret, and had four children by his first wife, viz: Winnifred, Margaret, Stephen G. and Burnetta. William M. Fish was reared and educated in Rockcastle County, Ky. and from boyhood has devoted the greater part of his time to agricultural pursuits, owning a fine farm in Rockcastle County. In 1862 he was elected county court clerk at Mount Vernon, and the following year was appointed Deputy United States Marshal, holding both offices for about three months. He resigned and was appointed Internal Revenue Assistant Assessor, and held this office for a number of years. He then held no office until 1873, when he was elected circuit clerk, to which office he has been re-elected once in six years ever since. His political preference is the Republican party, and he has always taken an active part in politics. December 8, 1856, he married Talitha T., a daughter of William and Charity (Lawrence) French, of Rockcastle County, Ky. Six children have blessed their union, viz: Mary L., Thomas J., Hattie J., Jones P., Charity A. and Marion G. Mr. Fish is a member of the F. & A.M. fraternity, and has been since the year 1857.

1. Thomas Fish was born [1, 2] about 1755 in North Carolina. He died [3, 4] on Aug 13 1840 in Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle County, Kentucky. He was buried in Hiatt Cemetery, Renfro Valley, Rockcastle County, Kentucky. Burial Note: Have picture of headstone He was employed as Justice of the Peace and Sheriff of Rockcastle County for m.

> From letter written by Jesse Fish in 1869 to his nephew, James S. Fish of Crab Orchard, KY: "My grandfathers Fish and Birney are our remotest ancestors that I have had any particular account of and most of my information on that subject was long since verbally obtained from Mother [Wineford Birney Fish] and of course my narrative will be a little indefinite but as she appeared to be gifted with a very sound recollection I incline to believe that her statements were generally near about correct. I don't recollect of ever hearing the name of my grandfather (your Great Grandfather Fish, who emigrated from England and settled in the Colony of North Carolina something over one hundred years since but I have no recollection at this time of ever hearing anything said in relation to the name of the county where he lived and the most particular account I ever had concerning his is that he was killed by a hostile Indian while he was riding on a hunting excursion near a certain water course in N.C. that has been going by the name of Fish's River. I have no account as to the number of his children, but have been informed that his son Thomas (my Father) was a small boy at the time of his Father's death and his Mother having previously died, caused him to be placed in the hands of some disinterested individuals who (as I am informed) seemed to care very little about his future welfare, therefore he was compelled thereafter to stem the tide of adversity the best way that he could until relieved by becoming of sufficient age to manage his own concern, and subsequently to that time he joined the army as a volunteer and served a tour of duty on an expedition against the Tories and Indians who were being very troublesome to the frontier settlers in that part of the country during the time of the old Revolutionary war. After his return from the army he frequently was speaking of having marched through a village then in North Carolina called Moravian Town where he saw a Tory man hanging by the neck and from appearance had been in that condition for a day or two and the soldiers were not permitted to take him down in order that he might be buried. About the year 1781 he was married to my Mother (late Wineford Birney) she being the eldest child of William Birney who I believe was residing in Guilford County, N.C. and I suppose (from information) that my Father and Mother emigrated from that State to Madison County, Kentucky, packing a few household goods and their five children on horses traveling on Boone Trace by way of Cumberland Gap and Hazle Patch through a wilderness and settled on Paint Lick Creek a small distance above the mouth of Walnut Meadow fork about the year 1791, while Indians were being very troublesome in the way of killing and robbing of imigrants on that route." ... "Sometime about the year 1800 they again moved with their 9 children before named and settled on waters of Roundstone some three fourths of a mile from mouth of Big Clear Creek, then in Madison County, but about the year 1810 was taken into Rockcastle. After settling at the last named place they had an increase of three more children, one daughter and two sons, the youngest > one of all being a boy that was born dead and, of course, never had a given name, the two surviving ones being named Jane and Pleasant, making the total number of their living children eleven (11) all of them were grown and married a considerable length of time previously to the death of our parents. My father continued to live the balance of his days at the same place where he first settled on waters of Roundstone and there died the 13th day of August in the year 1840 and was buried next day at the old Grave Yard near to where Renfro Creek Meeeting House formerly stood. He had no record of his age but was supposed to be near 85 (eighty five) years old at the time of his death."

> Per letter by Jesse Fish, Jan. 1, 1869: "He [Thomas Fish] had acted as Justice of the Peace and member of Rockcastle County Court for some eight or ten years and afterwards was appointed by the Governor and > commissioned to fill the office of high Sheriff under whom I acted as deputy during his term of two years."
> SOURCE: Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.

Thomas married [1] Winaford Birney daughter of William Birney and Mary Unknown about 1781 in Guilford County, North Carolina. Winaford was born [2, 3] on Mar 10 1767 in Guilford County, North Carolina. She died [4, 5] on Jan 9 1850 in Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle County, Kentucky. She was buried in Hiatt Cemetery, Renfro Valley, Rockcastle County, Kentucky. Burial Note: Have picture of headstone

> Per letter written by Jesse Fish to his nephew, James S. Fish, Jan.1, 1869: "My mother (your grandmother Wineford Fish) being his [Thomas Fish's] widow, continued to live several years at the old place where he had died, but finally went to stay with her daughter Ann Smith near to Mount Vernon, where she continued to remain until the time of her death which I think occurred in the Spring of 1850, and she was buried by the side of your Grandfather. I was away from home at the time of her death and burial and therefore have failed to recollect the particular date. To the best of my recollection I have heard her say that she was born on the 10th day of March 1767, which made her about 84 (eighty four) years of age at the time of her death."

They had the following children:

+ 2 M i Colonel William Fish

+ 3 F ii Anne Birney Fish

4 M iii Thomas Fish was born [1] about 1786 in Guillford County, North Carolina. He died [2] in 1823 in Clark County, Arkansas. Thomas was employed as Was Judge of the Court in Arkansas.

> Per letter from Jesse Fish to his nephew, James S. Fish, dated Jan.1, 1869: "Your Uncle Thomas was the first Deputy Surveyor that ever done business of that kind in the County of Rockcastle about the year 1810 and 1811. William Smith (his brother in law) being principle surveyor at that time. In the fall of 1812 while our Government was engaged at war with Great Britton and their Indian allies, the latter became very troublesome to our frontier settlers between the Ohio River and Lakes of Canada. Consequently the governor of Kentucky issued a call for Volunteers in order to repel the savages, and in a short time a Brigade numbering over 2000 Mounted Troops were proceeding on their way to Wabash River in order to be mustered into service at Vincense. Your Uncle Thomas with his elder Brother (William Fish) joined a company that went on that expedition and served a short tour of duty as Rangers being detached for the purpose of guarding the inhabitants on the waters of Wabash beyond where the savages had lately been killing and scalping of men, women and children in Indiana Territory and after obtaining an honorable discharge from the army both of them immediately returned home to kentucky where your Uncle William continued to reside the remainder of his days.

"Your Uncle Thomas Fish bore the name of being a young man of uncommon steady habits and was considered by our parents to be the most sensible one of all their sons. He seemed to have a considerable inclination to travel and had a particular desire to visit some of our maternal relatives who were then a portion of them living in Mississippi and others in Louisiana. Consequently he left home in the Spring of 1813 and prodeeded directly to Boonsborough and there embarked as a hand on a Flat Boat which was loaded with cargo of Tobacco, etc., on which he descended on the Kentucky, Ohio & Mississippi Rivers to the City of Natchez, and after landing at that place and leaving the Boat he visited his grand Uncle (David Birney) an old settler then living some five or six miles from the City, and was bearing the name of a respectable citizen and was thought to be in a good condition as to property, etc. and after remaining several days at the house of Uncle David he set out and traveled about fifty or sixty miles across the country in a westwardly direction to where Uncle William Birney (a brother to our Mother) was then living some ten or twelve miles from the old post of Wacheta which is now known by the name of Monroe Court house, it being the county seat of Washeta County in the State of Louisiana.

"After arriving at Uncle William Birneys and remaining and laboring for wages mostly on a farm, he then changed his occupation and went to trading on water and running a Keel Boat until he finally ascended the Washita River a distance of some 300 miles (by way of the river) and took up his residence in Clark County not far from where Arkadelphia is now situated, and where he was living at the time Arkansas Territory was established in the year 1819. And in the same year he was appointed and commissioned by the Governor to fill the Office of Justice of the Peace and afterwards was elected to represent the people of Clark County and served in the lower branch of the first Legislative body that ever assembled in that Territory. There was a very peculiar incident occurred at the time of his election and as I never heard of a similar circumstance before nor since, I have concluded to report it in this short biographical sketch. It so happened that he did not lose a solitary vote in the Township where he was living although he had two competitors and one of them a Doctor in good standing. Subsequently he was married to a Miss Emily Hemphill with whom I was personally acquainted in the year 1819 when I was detained in that country on account of sickness and being confined at her Mother's house in time of my worst affliction. Emily (who afterwards became his wife, appeared to possess a very mild disposition, had good educatin and was generally respected. I returned to Kentucky in the spring of 1820 which was previous to the time of their marriage and was subsequently informed that the Legislature of that Territory had lately abolished the Circuit Court System and that your Uncle Thomas Fish was then acting under an appointment as Judge of a Quarterly Court with the jurisdiction formerly appertaining to the Judges of Circuit Courts. I suppose he was holding the Judgeship when taken down with a disease in his side of which he died about the year 1823, leaving his wife without any children, they never having but one and that he outlived."

Thomas married[1] Emily Hemphill daughter of Unknown Hemphill about 1820 in Clark County, Arkansas. Emily was born[2] in Arkansas.

+ 5 M iv John Fish

+ 6 M v James Shelby Fish

7 M vi Henry Fish was born[1] about 1793 in Paint Lick, Garrard County, Kentucky.

+ 8 M vii Judge Jesse Fish

9 M viii David Fish was born[1] about 1797 in Paint Lick, Garrard County, Kentucky. He died[2] in 1832 in New Orleans, Louisiana. He was buried in Louisiana. David was employed as Cotton Planter.

Took a boat load of cotton to New Orleans, Louisiana from Arkansas and became stricken with a disease, died there and was buried in the public burying grounds.

Per letter from Jesse Fish to his nephew, James S. Fish, dated Jan. 1, 1869: "Your Uncle David Fish also emigrated to that country by water in the Spring of 1817 and became a citizen of Clark County and followed cutting and rafting of cypress trees out of Washeta River which he generally was selling down on the coast of the Mississippi for a few years before he was married to Miss Hariet Hemphill, a sister to your Uncle Thomas' wife, and who appeared to be a clever kind hearted woman with tolerable good education and was well esteemed. I have been informed that he was occupying a good farm of his own and was also running a cotton gin until the spring of 1832, and he shipped a cargo of cotton down to New Orleans and while there was struck with Cholera where he died and was buried in a public cemetery belonging to the City. Some few years previously to his death I was informed that he had served one or two terms as Senator in the General Assembly of that Territory. He was cut off in the prime of life being about forty years of age and left his wife with only one child a small daughter and the last time I heard from them they were both in bad health, and in all probability are now dead."

In the fall of 1812 while our Government was engaged at war with Great Britton and their Indian allies, the latter became very troublesome to our frontier settlers between the Ohio River and Lakes of Canada. Consequently the governor of Kentucky issued a call for Volunteers in order to repel the savages, and in a short time a Brigade numbering over 2000 Mounted Troops were proceeding on their way to Wabash River in order to be mustered into service at Vincense. Your Uncle Thomas with his elder Brother (William Fish) joined a company that went on that expedition and served a short tour of duty as Rangers being detached for the purpose of guarding the inhabitants on the waters of Wabash beyond where the savages had lately been killing and scalping of men, women and children in Indiana Territory and after obtaining an honorable discharge from the army both of them immediately returned home to kentucky where your Uncle William continued to reside the remainder of his days.
"Your Uncle Thomas Fish bore the name of being a young man of uncommon steady habits and was considered by our parents to be the most sensible one of all their sons. He seemed to have a considerable inclination to travel and had a particular desire to visit some of our maternal relatives who were then a portion of them living in Mississippi and others in Louisiana. Consequently he left home in the Spring of 1813 and prodeeded directly to Boonsborough and there embarked as a hand on a Flat Boat which was loaded with cargo of Tobacco, etc., on which he descended on the Kentucky, Ohio & Mississippi Rivers to the City of Natchez, and after landing at that place and leaving the Boat he visited his grand Uncle (David Birney) an old settler then living some five or six miles from the City, and was bearing the name of a respectable citizen and was thought to be in a good condition as to property, etc. and after remaining several days at the house of Uncle David he set out and traveled about fifty or sixty miles across the country in a westwardly direction to where Uncle William Birney (a brother to our Mother) was then living some ten or twelve miles from the old post of Wacheta which is now known by the name of Monroe Court house, it being the county seat of Washeta County in the State of Louisiana.
"After arriving at Uncle William Birneys and remaining and laboring for wages mostly on a farm, he then changed his occupation and went to trading on water and running a Keel Boat until he finally ascended the Washita River a distance of some 300 miles (by way of the river) and took up his residence in Clark County not far from where Arkadelphia is now situated, and where he was living at the time Arkansas Territory was established in the year 1819. And in the same year he was appointed and commissioned by the Governor to fill the Office of Justice of the Peace and afterwards was elected to represent the people of Clark County and served in the lower branch of the first Legislative body that ever assembled in that Territory. There was a very peculiar incident occurred at the time of his election and as I never heard of a similar circumstance before nor since, I have concluded to report it in this short biographical sketch. It so happened that he did not lose a solitary vote in the Township where he was living although he had two competitors and one of them a Doctor in good standing. Subsequently he was married to a Miss Emily Hemphill with whom I was personally acquainted in the year 1819 when I was detained in that country on account of sickness and being confined at her Mother's house in time of my worst affliction. Emily (who afterwards became his wife, appeared to possess a very mild disposition, had good educatin and was generally respected. I returned to Kentucky in the spring of 1820 which was previous to the time of their marriage and was subsequently informed that the Legislature of that Territory had lately abolished the Circuit Court System and that your Uncle Thomas Fish was then acting under an appointment as Judge of a Quarterly Court with the jurisdiction formerly appertaining to the Judges of Circuit Courts. I suppose he was holding the Judgeship when taken down with a disease in his side of which he died about the year 1823, leaving his wife without any children, they never having but one and that he outlived."

Notes for DAVID FISH:
Took a boat load of cotton to New Orleans, Louisiana from Arkansas and became stricken with a disease, died there and was buried in the public burying grounds.

Per letter from Jesse Fish to his nephew, James S. Fish, dated Jan. 1, 1869: "Your Uncle David Fish also emigrated to that country by water in the Spring of 1817 and became a citizen of Clark County and followed cutting and rafting of cypress trees out of Washeta River which he generally was selling down on the coast of the Mississippi for a few years before he was married to Miss Hariet Hemphill, a sister to your Uncle Thomas' wife, and who appreared to be a clever kind hearted woman with tolerable good education and was well esteemed. I have been informed that he was occupying a good farm of his own and was also running a cotton gin until the spring of 1832, and he shipped a cargo of cotton down to New Orleans and while there was struck with Cholera where he died and was buried in a public cemetery belonging to the City. Some few years previously to his death I was informed that he had served one or two terms as Senator in the General Assembly of that Territory. He was cut off in the prime of life being about forty years of age and left his wife with only one child a small daughter and the last time I heard from them they were both in bad health, and in all probability are now dead."

He was Justice of the Peace, a member of Rockcastle County Court and captain of a Militia Company at the time and after he had served as a private in the Army, also was promoted to the office of Colonel of the 79th Regiment of Kentucky Militia. He closed his official career by filling the office of High Sheriff of Rockcastle County, under whom I acted as Deputy for his term of two years which expired at the end of 1821. At the times of his filling those different stations they were considered to be quite honorable, but at the present time and for a few years past it appears as though most of the highest functionaries in our government have been disgracing the offices they were pretending to fill."

Notes for JAMES SHELBY FISH:
June 2002, visited the gravesite of James & Sarah Fish located on the Hysinger Farm in Mt. Vernon, Rockcastle Co., Kentucky. The original log farmhouse assumed to have been built by James Fish about 1812 is still standing, but has been covered with siding and has had an addition added to the back where Rick and Kathryn Hysinger currently live with their 11-year old son, Richard. According to Rick, his grandfather, Samuel Hysinger, purchased the farm from John Fish (son of James Fish?) in 1880 or 81. Samuel lived there til his death with his brother Cecil, a lifelong bachelor. Cecil lived there until his death when the farm was purchased by Rick's side of the family.
Along with the graves of James & Sarah Fish are the graves of 2 slaves. Rick Hysinger told a story that he had heard from his grandfather that when the Fish family lived on the farm there was a large orchard on the hill where the house was. When the fruit was ripe the slaves would take some of it down into the hollow & make wine or other spirits for the use of the household (& others no doubt!).
From the "Rockcastle Co., Kentucky State Vital Statistics and Federal Census Mortality Schedule from 1800's": "James Fish, married man, age 67, died 22 Jun 1858 of Typhoid Fever. Parents: Thos/Winneford Fish. Farmer. Born probably So. Carolina." Also listed is "Ann (slave of James Fish), Black female slave, 25 years. Died Nov. 16, 1856. Parents: James Fish. Residence, KY, RCK, Renfro Creek."

Notes for WILLIAM MARION FISH:
William M. Fish was born in Rockcastle County, Ky., November 16, 1828. His father, William Fish, a native of North Carolina, but of English descent, was the eldest son of Thomas and Winnifred (Burney) Fish, natives of England. William Fish, father of our subject, was a farmer in Rockcastle County, Ky. all his life, and was a man of considerable prominence in political and social affairs. About 1820 he was made sheriff of the county. He also served as a Colonel in the State militia. His wife, Annie, was born in Lincoln County, Ky. and was a daughter of Nathaniel Logan, of Irish descent. They had four children, viz: Sarah J., Harriet, William M. and John T.. He and his wife lived to a good old age, and died in Rockcastle County, members of the Christian Church. Col. William Fish had been married before he married Annie Logan,--married Sallie Maret, and had four children by his first wife, viz: Winnifred, Margaret, Stephen G. and Burnetta. William M. Fish was reared and educated in Rockcastle County, Ky. and from boyhood has devoted the greater part of his time to agricultural pursuits, owning a fine farm in Rockcastle County. In 1862 he was elected county court clerk at Mount Vernon, and the following year was appointed Deputy United States Marshal, holding both offices for about three months. He resigned and was appointed Internal Revenue Assistant Assessor, and held this office for a number of years. He then held no office until 1873, when he was elected circuit clerk, to which office he has been re-elected once in six years ever since. His political preference is the Republican party, and he has always taken an active part in politics. December 8, 1856, he married Talitha T., a daughter of William and Charity (Lawrence) French, of Rockcastle County, Ky. Six children have blessed their union, viz: Mary L., Thomas J., Hattie J., Jones P., Charity A. and Marion G. Mr. Fish is a member of the F. & A.M. fraternity, and has been since the year 1857. Notes for Judge John Evans Carson:
Per 'The Real Wild West' by Michael Wallis: "On April 23, 1875, Molly's revered father, Judge John Evans Carson, was shot and killed on the church steps in Crab Orchard. In a strange way, he was a belated victim of the Civil War. A longtime adversary who still quarreled with Judge Carson because of Carson's fervent pro-Confederate stance apparently ambushed him 'Over war talk," as one witness put it."
Per note from Francis Hubert, "Minnie Carson Bennett and Minnie Hill both told of this account of the death of Judge John Evans Carson: 'Uncle Judge was killed on the church steps by a man named Smith, over war talk.' Minnie Bennett was 87 at the time she wrote, and she left Kentucky when she was 12 years old. She said, "I remember the tape on holes where he was shot." She would have been 8 years old at the time."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY Friday, April 28, 1876: "A BLOODY MURDER - Judge Carson Assassinated"
"Crab Orchard was the scene, on Sunday last, of a most foul murder. Judge J.E. Carson a useful and respected citizen of that place, aged 72 years, while on his way to church, was shot and instantly killed, within a few steps of the church door, by a man named John Q. Smith, also a resident of Crab Orchard. Without any warning, and from the rear, Smith commenced shooting at Carson, and after firing three shots, any one of which would have proved fatal, a Mr. Foley caught Smith and endeavored to prevent him shooting again, but Smith, who is a very strong man, shook him away at the same time threatening to shoot Foley, if he further interferred. He then fired two more shots, both taking effect in the Judge's body. Smith made no effort to escape, and when, on being arrested, was asked why he did the shooting, only replied "that someone had to kill him, and it might have as well been me, as any one else." He is a man about 50 years old, a carpenter by trade, and is naturally, very reticent, and for this reason, and the fact of the bloody deed, is supposed, by many, to be crazy. It is said that he has cherished an ill feeling for Judge Carson since January last, when the Judge, in his capacity as Asscessor of Crab Orchard, applied to him for his list. Some warm words issued between them, and ended by Smith running Carson out of the house with a hatchet. Smith waived an examining trial and as his case is not a bailable one, he will be held in jail here, to be tried for an indictment for murder at the next term of the Circuit Court--provided the friends of Judge Carson do not fear that justice will be thwarted and mete out a more certain punishment to him. Fearing this, the Jail has been nightly guarded by a number of young men summoned for the purpose. Such fiendish acts as the one recorded, deserve the quickest and direst punishment of the law, else no person in the country can feel himself in the least safe. If Smith is insane, he ought to be ironed and placed in an asylum, if not, then severest penalty of the law can hardly atone for his dreadful crime."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY Friday, April 28, 1876: "AN EXCITING SCENE"
"On last Wednesday morning, a very exciting scene occurred at the Court House. The man, John Smith, who killed Judge Carson, was brought out to the Court House to see whether or not the case could be tried at this term. Four sons of Mr. Carson, John, James, Joe and David, came into the room. The Court on hearing that they were armed, had the Sheriff to search them, but no pistols were found. Smith was remanded to Jail, with a guard of six or eight men, and on reaching the Court yard, young Joe Carson, sprang forward with a drawn Navy Revolver, and, placing it almost against the breast of Smith, attempted to fire, but the pistol snapped. The other three sons were present with weapons, but by the courage of the guard, they were all four caught and disarmed, and Smith's life saved, so far. The two young men mostly engaged in the affair, were taken before the Judge, who, at first, ordered them to give bond in $500 each, to keep the peace, but on reflection, concluded to take their word of honor to do no further violence to the prisoner, and they were thus set at liberty. The sympathy of the entire community is with these young men and we heard numbers regret that young Carson did not succeed in avenging the death of his aged father."

From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY, October 20, 1876:
"John Smith, charged with murdering Judge Carson, at Crab Orchard was brought up from Louisville last Wednesday, and his case will, in all probability, be called this morning, and tried during the term. The case creates much excitement."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY, October 27, 1876: "CIRCUIT COURT - TRIAL OF JOHN SMITH"
"Promptly at nine o'clock, last Saturday morning, the Court called the case of the Commonwealth against John Smith, charged with the murder of John E. Carson, at Crab Orchard last April. The court room was filled with people from all parts of the county, who were anxious to hear the trial. It was with great difficulty that a jury was obtained, as nearly everybody had come to an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused from reading the papers or from rumors. It took nearly an entire day to get a jury, but finally the following jurymen were sworn: A.K. Denny, J.M. Elder, Jno. W. Logan, J.B. McKinney, G.N. Bradley, John Jones, A.M. Jones, John Dinwiddie, Jno. Menifee, George Bright, George Tribble and T.M. White. After they were sworn, the attorneys for the defense put in the plea of not guilty on account of the insanity of the accused, to which plea of insanity the attorney for the Commonwealth replied in effect that it was simulated, not a real insanity, and that the case of the murder was jealousy. In other words, that there was a 'woman at the bottom' of the entire acts of the defendant Smith. A great many witnesses were examined, especially for the defense, the latter to prove the monomania of Mr. Smith. The witnesses for the prosecution, in giving their evidence in chief, necessarily confined themselves to the act and circumstances of the killing, which occurred on a Sunday morning in April last, in front of the Baptist church door, at Crab Orchard. Judge Carson, the man killed, was shot by Smith with a revolver, five times, either of which is thought would have produced death. Such was the advanced age (72 years) of the deceased. Divine services were just about to begin. A Mr. Foley was with Mr. Carson, who asked Smith not to shoot, and held him for a moment, but Smith was bent on killing Judge Carson. After shooting all the loads out of his revolver, but one, (which failed to fire), Smith walked deliberately across the street where his carpenter shop was situated, but was halted and arrested and taken to Stanford to jail. There was some proof that Carson, who was town Assessor of Crab Orchard, went to Smith's shop to get a list of his taxable property, some months before the killing, and that Smith greatly abused him. There was also some proof that a certain woman who lived near Crab Orchard, was visited now and then by both Smith and Carson, privately. Some proof was also given that Smith sometimes drank liquor, but not to excess. His character was proven by all the witnesses to have been that of a quiet, peaceable, unoffensive man, one who rarely ever said a word to anyone even on business. That he had a great impediment in his speech, and did not like to talk. At the close of the statements as to the killing, etc, the Commonwealth rested her case in chief. The defense then introduced their witnesses to prove the plea of insanity. The sister of Smith, with whom he lived, the niece of Smith and the brother, swore that Smith acted strangely for several months before the killing. That his health was bad, had but little appetite, was restless and lost much sleep. That he imagined there were several men after him to kill him. That there was a combination of men to ruin his character and break him up in business. That on one occasion he told his sister, a maiden lady of fifty years of age, one night at home, that there were three men around the house who had come to harm him. Smith would not be satisfied until his sister or some one else, went for the town marshal and another person, to look for the three men. The marshal and another came, examined the premises, and told Smith no body was there, and that if he was afraid to stay there, to go and stay all night with one of them. Smith accepted the invitation, and went and staid all night with a Mr. DeBord. Other witnesses, among them Col. W.G. Welch, a Mr. Myers and others, testified to acts of monomania, or insanity. The defense introduced two physicians, who had heard all, or nearly all of the evidence and after defining the various species of insanity, said that, if the evidence was true, as detailed by the witnesses, then in their opinion as medical men, the man, John Smith, was of unsound mind. Other witness said that in their opinion, Smith was insane. The foregoing are the main details of the evidence in the defense. After this, the Commonwealth introduced rebutting evidence to show that Smith was a sane man. These were not medical men, however, but were the men who had known Smith for years. Many of them said they believed Smith to be of sound mind, from conversations they had with him on certain occasions. One other physician testified for the prosecution, but his evidence differed but little from that of the other two physicians who testified at the instance of the defense. At the conclusion of the testimony for and against the prisoner, the court gave full instructions to the jury, and adjourned them at five o'clock Tuesday evening, until after supper. The sheriff kept them together until half past six, p. m., when they were called together and the argument was opened for the defense by J.W.

Alcorn, Esq., in a forcible speech of about one hour. He was followed by Col. G.W. Dunlap for the prosecution in a speech of much power. He spoke over an hour and a quarter. After this, the jury were discharged until Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock. At that hour, W.O. Hansford addressed the jury for the defense for over an hour. His speech was a feeling and good one. He was followed by Judge M.C. Saufley for the prosecution in a somewhat lengthy speech, but it had a seemingly powerful effect upon the jury and the audience. Next and last came Col. T.P. Hill, for the defense, in one of the finest and ablest efforts he ever made in behalf of a criminal at our bar. His speech, nearly two hours long, was logical, beautiful, eloquent and convincing. The case was closed by Commonwealth Atoorney George Denny. Mr. Denny, as a prosecutor, has but few equals in any district of the State. To say that he did justice to the Commonwealth, would be only a slight compliment. His effort in the prosecution was bold and telling, and showed him to be capable of attending to the public interest in the field to which he has been chosen. A number of ladies attended the speaking, and seemed to be much entertained. The case was given to the jury at 6 o'clock, and they retired and remained in their room for about two hours, without making a verdict. The Judge then adjourned them for the night, but called them together the next morning and they remained out until nearly noon. Being wholly unable to agree, they came in and so announced to the court, and they were therefore discharged. How they stood in the matter, no one yet knows, as they made a solemn vow among themselves not to let the public know. Smith, of course, was remanded to jail, where he will remain until the next term of this court in April, and all the long and tedious trial will have to be gone through with again. Four days and a part of two nights were spent in the investigatin of the Smith case, which is quite one-third of the entire term."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY April 27, 1877: "CIRCUIT COURT NOTES"
"The greater portion of the time of the Court since our last report has been taken up in the trial of John Smith, who our readers will remember, shot and killed Judge J.E. Carson, at Crab Orchard on the 23rd day of April, 1876. This is the second trial of the case, and as it has created great excitement throughout the county, it was impossible to obtain but four jurors out of the regular panel, to-wit: Thomas Robinson, Liberty Green, Perry Land and P.L. Simpson, and the Court being satisfied that a full jury could not be obtained in the county, appointed Mr. T.T. Daviess a special Sheriff to go to Boyle county and summons sixty men. On Friday morning about forty men, in obedience to his summons appeared in Court, from which the additional following jurors were obtained: Jeff. Hudson, Wm. Calvert, Peter Bonia, Anthony May, Wm. Dibon, J.N. Prewitt, Samuel McDowell and Nick McDowell, and the panel having been completed the jury was sworn in. The taking of the testimony was commenced at noon Friday, and after the examination of some thirty or forty witnesses was concluded on Tuesday morning, when the charges to the jury having been agreed upon, the argument of the case was begun. The plea of the defendant was that he was at the time of the killing, and is now, insane. He was very ably defended, the speeches of some of his counsel being especially comprehensive and eloquent. Commonwealth Attorney George Denny, Jr., closed the argument on Wednesday about 10 o'clock, with one of his best and most forcible speeches, and the case was then given to the jury, who, after a short retirement returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant, John Smith, guilty of murder and fix as his punishment, confinement in the Penitentiary during his natural life." The verdict appears to give almost unusual satisfaction as it will be easy enough to change Mr. Smith's residence from the Penitentiary to the Asylum if the officers at the former institution discover the much longed for insanity. Since the first trial of the case in October last, Smith has been confined for safe keeping in the jail at Louisville, and we are informed by the Clerk of the Court that his case has already cost the Commonwealth over $2,000. It is to be hoped that it is at last ended."

Notes for JUDGE JOHN EVANS CARSON:
Per 'The Real Wild West' by Michael Wallis: "On April 23, 1875, Molly's revered father, Judge John Evans Carson, was shot and killed on the church steps in Crab Orchard. In a strange way, he was a belated victim of the Civil War. A longtime adversary who still quarreled with Judge Carson because of Carson's fervent pro-Confederate stance apparently ambushed him 'Over war talk," as one witness put it."
Per note from Francis Hubert, "Minnie Carson Bennett and Minnie Hill both told of this account of the death of Judge John Evans Carson: 'Uncle Judge was killed on the church steps by a man named Smith, over war talk.' Minnie Bennett was 87 at the time she wrote, and she left Kentucky when she was 12 years old. She said, "I remember the tape on holes where he was shot." She would have been 8 years old at the time."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY Friday, April 28, 1876: "A BLOODY MURDER - Judge Carson Assassinated"
"Crab Orchard was the scene, on Sunday last, of a most foul murder. Judge J.E. Carson a useful and respected citizen of that place, aged 72 years, while on his way to church, was shot and instantly killed, within a few steps of the church door, by a man named John Q. Smith, also a resident of Crab Orchard. Without any warning, and from the rear, Smith commenced shooting at Carson, and after firing three shots, any one of which would have proved fatal, a Mr. Foley caught Smith and endeavored to prevent him shooting again, but Smith, who is a very strong man, shook him away at the same time threatening to shoot Foley, if he further interferred. He then fired two more shots, both taking effect in the Judge's body. Smith made no effort to escape, and when, on being arrested, was asked why he did the shooting, only replied "that someone had to kill him, and it might have as well been me, as any one else." He is a man about 50 years old, a carpenter by trade, and is naturally, very reticent, and for this reason, and the fact of the bloody deed, is supposed, by many, to be crazy. It is said that he has cherished an ill feeling for Judge Carson since January last, when the Judge, in his capacity as Asscessor of Crab Orchard, applied to him for his list. Some warm words issued between them, and ended by Smith running Carson out of the house with a hatchet. Smith waived an examining trial and as his case is not a bailable one, he will be held in jail here, to be tried for an indictment for murder at the next term of the Circuit Court--provided the friends of Judge Carson do not fear that justice will be thwarted and mete out a more certain punishment to him. Fearing this, the Jail has been nightly guarded by a number of young men summoned for the purpose. Such fiendish acts as the one recorded, deserve the quickest and direst punishment of the law, else no person in the country can feel himself in the least safe. If Smith is insane, he ought to be ironed and placed in an asylum, if not, then severest penalty of the law can hardly atone for his dreadful crime."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY Friday, April 28, 1876: "AN EXCITING SCENE"
"On last Wednesday morning, a very exciting scene occurred at the Court House. The man, John Smith, who killed Judge Carson, was brought out to the Court House to see whether or not the case could be tried at this term. Four sons of Mr. Carson, John, James, Joe and David, came into the room. The Court on hearing that they were armed, had the Sheriff to search them, but no pistols were found. Smith was remanded to Jail, with a guard of six or eight men, and on reaching the Court yard, young Joe Carson, sprang forward with a drawn Navy Revolver, and, placing it almost against the breast of Smith, attempted to fire, but the pistol snapped. The other three sons were present with weapons, but by the courage of the guard, they were all four caught and disarmed, and Smith's life saved, so far. The two young men mostly engaged in the affair, were taken before the Judge, who, at first, ordered them to give bond in $500 each, to keep the peace, but on reflection, concluded to take their word of honor to do no further violence to the prisoner, and they were thus set at liberty. The sympathy of the entire community is with these young men and we heard numbers regret that young Carson did not succeed in avenging the death of his aged father."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY, October 20, 1876:
"John Smith, charged with murdering Judge Carson, at Crab Orchard was brought up from Louisville last Wednesday, and his case will, in all probability, be called this morning, and tried during the term. The case creates much excitement."
From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY, October 27, 1876: "CIRCUIT COURT - TRIAL OF JOHN SMITH"
"Promptly at nine o'clock, last Saturday morning, the Court called the case of the Commonwealth against John Smith, charged with the murder of John E. Carson, at Crab Orchard last April. The court room was filled with people from all parts of the county, who were anxious to hear the trial. It was with great difficulty that a jury was obtained, as nearly everybody had come to an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused from reading the papers or from rumors. It took nearly an entire day to get a jury, but finally the following jurymen were sworn: A.K. Denny, J.M. Elder, Jno. W. Logan, J.B. McKinney, G.N. Bradley, John Jones, A.M. Jones, John Dinwiddie, Jno. Menifee, George Bright, George Tribble and T.M. White. After they were sworn, the attorneys for the defense put in the plea of not guilty on account of the insanity of the accused, to which plea of insanity the attorney for the Commonwealth replied in effect that it was simulated, not a real insanity, and that the case of the murder was jealousy. In other words, that there was a 'woman at the bottom' of the entire acts of the defendant Smith. A great many witnesses were examined, especially for the defense, the latter to prove the monomania of Mr. Smith. The witnesses for the prosecution, in giving their evidence in chief, necessarily confined themselves to the act and circumstances of the killing, which occurred on a Sunday morning in April last, in front of the Baptist church door, at Crab Orchard. Judge Carson, the man killed, was shot by Smith with a revolver, five times, either of which is thought would have produced death. Such was the advanced age (72 years) of the deceased. Divine services were just about to begin. A Mr. Foley was with Mr. Carson, who asked Smith not to shoot, and held him for a moment, but Smith was bent on killing Judge Carson. After shooting all the loads out of his revolver, but one, (which failed to fire), Smith walked deliberately across the street where his carpenter shop was situated, but was halted and arrested and taken to Stanford to jail. There was some proof that Carson, who was town Assessor of Crab Orchard, went to Smith's shop to get a list of his taxable property, some months before the killing, and that Smith greatly abused him. There was also some proof that a certain woman who lived near Crab Orchard, was visited now and then by both Smith and Carson, privately. Some proof was also given that Smith sometimes drank liquor, but not to excess. His character was proven by all the witnesses to have been that of a quiet, peaceable, unoffensive man, one who rarely ever said a word to anyone even on business. That he had a great impediment in his speech, and did not like to talk. At the close of the statements as to the killing, etc, the Commonwealth rested her case in chief. The defense then introduced their witnesses to prove the plea of insanity. The sister of Smith, with whom he lived, the niece of Smith and the brother, swore that Smith acted strangely for several months before the killing. That his health was bad, had but little appetite, was restless and lost much sleep. That he imagined there were several men after him to kill him. That there was a combination of men to ruin his character and break him up in business. That on one occasion he told his sister, a maiden lady of fifty years of age, one night at home, that there were three men around the house who had come to harm him. Smith would not be satisfied until his sister or some one else, went for the town marshal and another person, to look for the three men. The marshal and another came, examined the premises, and told Smith no body was there, and that if he was afraid to stay there, to go and stay all night with one of them. Smith accepted the invitation, and went and staid all night with a Mr. DeBord. Other witnesses, among them Col. W.G. Welch, a Mr. Myers and others, testified to acts of monomania, or insanity. The defense introduced two physicians, who had heard all, or nearly all of the evidence and after defining the various species of insanity, said that, if the evidence was true, as detailed by the witnesses, then in their opinion as medical men, the man, John Smith, was of unsound mind. Other witness said that in their opinion, Smith was insane. The foregoing are the main details of the evidence in the defense. After this, the Commonwealth introduced rebutting evidence to show that Smith was a sane man. These were not medical men, however, but were the men who had known Smith for years. Many of them said they believed Smith to be of sound mind, from conversations they had with him on certain occasions. One other physician testified for the prosecution, but his evidence differed but little from that of the other two physicians who testified at the instance of the defense. At the conclusion of the testimony for and against the prisoner, the court gave full instructions to the jury, and adjourned them at five o'clock Tuesday evening, until after supper. The sheriff kept them together until half past six, p. m., when they were called together and the argument was opened for the defense by J.W. Alcorn, Esq., in a forcible speech of about one hour. He was followed by Col. G.W. Dunlap for the prosecution in a speech of much power. He spoke over an hour and a quarter. After this, the jury were discharged until Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock. At that hour, W.O. Hansford addressed the jury for the defense for over an hour. His speech was a feeling and good one. He was followed by Judge M.C. Saufley for the prosecution in a somewhat lengthy speech, but it had a seemingly powerful effect upon the jury and the audience. Next and last came Col. T.P. Hill, for the defense, in one of the finest and ablest efforts he ever made in behalf of a criminal at our bar. His speech, nearly two hours long, was logical, beautiful, eloquent and convincing. The case was closed by Commonwealth Atoorney George Denny. Mr. Denny, as a prosecutor, has but few equals in any district of the State. To say that he did justice to the Commonwealth, would be only a slight compliment. His effort in the prosecution was bold and telling, and showed him to be capable of attending to the public interest in the field to which he has been chosen. A number of ladies attended the speaking, and seemed to be much entertained. The case was given to the jury at 6 o'clock, and they retired and remained in their room for about two hours, without making a verdict. The Judge then adjourned them for the night, but called them together the next morning and they remained out until nearly noon. Being wholly unable to agree, they came in and so announced to the court, and they were therefore discharged. How they stood in the matter, no one yet knows, as they made a solemn vow among themselves not to let the public know. Smith, of course, was remanded to jail, where he will remain until the next term of this court in April, and all the long and tedious trial will have to be gone through with again. Four days and a part of two nights were spent in the investigatin of the Smith case, which is quite one-third of the entire term."

From 'The Interior Journal' of Stanford, KY April 27, 1877: "CIRCUIT COURT NOTES"
"The greater portion of the time of the Court since our last report has been taken up in the trial of John Smith, who our readers will remember, shot and killed Judge J.E. Carson, at Crab Orchard on the 23rd day of April, 1876. This is the second trial of the case, and as it has created great excitement throughout the county, it was impossible to obtain but four jurors out of the regular panel, to-wit: Thomas Robinson, Liberty Green, Perry Land and P.L. Simpson, and the Court being satisfied that a full jury could not be obtained in the county, appointed Mr. T.T. Daviess a special Sheriff to go to Boyle county and summons sixty men. On Friday morning about forty men, in obedience to his summons appeared in Court, from which the additional following jurors were obtained: Jeff. Hudson, Wm. Calvert, Peter Bonia, Anthony May, Wm. Dibon, J.N. Prewitt, Samuel McDowell and Nick McDowell, and the panel having been completed the jury was sworn in. The taking of the testimony was commenced at noon Friday, and after the examination of some thirty or forty witnesses was concluded on Tuesday morning, when the charges to the jury having been agreed upon, the argument of the case was begun. The plea of the defendant was that he was at the time of the killing, and is now, insane. He was very ably defended, the speeches of some of his counsel being especially comprehensive and eloquent. Commonwealth Attorney George Denny, Jr., closed the argument on Wednesday about 10 o'clock, with one of his best and most forcible speeches, and the case was then given to the jury, who, after a short retirement returned the following verdict: "We, the jury, find the defendant, John Smith, guilty of murder and fix as his punishment, confinement in the Penitentiary during his natural life." The verdict appears to give almost unusual satisfaction as it will be easy enough to change Mr. Smith's residence from the Penitentiary to the Asylum if the officers at the former institution discover the much longed for insanity. Since the first trial of the case in October last, Smith has been confined for safe keeping in the jail at Louisville, and we are informed by the Clerk of the Court that his case has already cost the Commonwealth over $2,000. It is to be hoped that it is at last ended."

Notes for JOHN MADISON FISH:
Hon. John M. Fish, a native of Rockcastle County, Ky., was born September 19, 1820. His father, James Fish, was born in South Carolina in 1790, came to Kentucky with his father when quite young and settled in Madison County, but afterward moved to Rockcastle County, where he followed farming and blacksmithing all his life. His wife was Sarah (Roberts) Fish, and she was the mother of six children, only three of whom are living, viz: Marenda W., John M. and James S. The parents both died in Rockcastle County. John M. Fish was reared on the farm and received his education in the common school. He has always been a prominent man in his native county, and in 1870 was elected county judge of the county, serving one term. In August, 1875, he was elected to the Legislature, representing Rockcastle and Laurel Counties one term. He owns about 600 acres of land in Rockcastle County, and devotes the same to general farming. November 1, 1847, he married Miss Margaret A. Cook, of Rockcastle County, and they have six children, as follows: Sarah E., Mary M., Hiram R., Martha J., John B. and George C.. Politically Mr. Fish is a Democrat. 37. GEORGE WASHINGTON^5 MILLER (ALMINA^4 FISH, JOHN^3, THOMAS^2, UNKNOWN^1) was born February 22, 1842 in Crab Orchard, Lincoln County, Kentucky (Source: (1) Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, (She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.), "Electronic.", (2) Jeanne Snodgress Bonham and Patricia Heylmann Hiatt, Rockcastle County, Kentucky; Cemetery Records, (Published in 1986).), and died April 25, 1903 in Bliss, Kay County, Oklahoma (Source: (1) Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, (She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.), "Electronic.", (2) Jeanne Snodgress Bonham and Patricia Heylmann Hiatt, Rockcastle County, Kentucky; Cemetery Records, (Published in 1986).). He married MARY ANN CARSON January 9, 1866 in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky (Source: Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, (She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.), "Electronic."), daughter of JOHN CARSON and MARENDA FISH. She was born August 26, 1848 in Crab Orchard, Lincoln County, Kentucky (Source: Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, (She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.), "Electronic."), and died July 21, 1918 in Bliss, Kay County, Oklahoma (Source: Mary Dillon; mary_dillon@sbcglobal.net, (She is a descendant of James Shelby & Sarah Roberts Fish.), "Electronic.").

Notes for GEORGE WASHINGTON MILLER:
Second son of Almina Fish and George W. Miller, Sr.
1850 Census for Lincoln Co., KY lists him as 7 years old which would make his brith year 1843.
Reared by his grandfather John Fish on the Fish Plantation near Crab Orchard, KY.
Per family tree of Junaita Witt, after marriage to Mary Ann Carson they managed the Fish Plantation before moving west.
Moved from Rockcastle Co., KY to Newtonia, MO. Owned a general store in Newtonia.
1880 moved from Newtonia, Mo. to Baxter Springs, Kansas.
Large headstone in Fish Family Cemetery on the original Fish Plantation in Lincoln Co., KY. Headstone reads, "George W. Miller, born Feb. 26, 1842 Lincoln Co., KY, died Apr. 25, 1903, 101 Ranch, Bliss OT" (Oklahoma Territory). Still in good shape in May 2001, but overgrown with weeds.
To find cemetery: "Start at the Rockcastle/Lincoln county line on Route #150, go westward on #150 .8 mile to old farmhouse road on the right. Turn right, go .2 mile to house. Park car. The cemetery is about 200' up the rise from the house. The cemetery is in a field and is fenced. The weeds are head high and trees have been cut & dropped into the cemetery & have broken the fence and some of the stones." In May 2001, there was a locked gate at the road entrance from #150. Cows were in the pasture. The house is deserted and with the guidance of Jeff Mullens of McKnight Funeral Home in Crab Orchard, we climbed the fence and walked to the cemetery. Per Jeff, the gate could not be legally locked because of access issues for the cemetery, he would talk to the sheriff about it.
There were also headstones for Cyrus Sowder (b. Aug 1847, d. July 29, 1864), and also John A. Gove (b. 22 May 1816, d. 19 Oct 1848) - unknown family connections.

THE COVER

PART of the circus were posters which announced its coming and which, when the circus was in its heyday, plastered the countryside. The circus is back for a while, at least in the Indianapolis Children's Museum, where memorabilia of circus days is on display. On our cover are only two of the more than 100 colorful posters which are on view. For more about the circus exhibit, turn to Page 20. (Color photography by John H. Starkey)

Molly Carson was 2nd cousin of her husband, George W. Miller, Jr. Their mothers' were 1st cousins.
Per family tree of Juanita Witt, born on plantation of her father Judge John Evans Carson in Rockcastle Co., KY.
Sent by Frances Carson Hubert, Yukon, OK:
"Sketch of 101 Ranch" (Oklahoma History)
In 1870 after bad luck on Fish place George and "Polly" going to California, stoped in Newtonia, MO., established a home and store where Alma was born June 21, 1875, also Zachary Taylor born April 26, 1878. Some of Polly's brothers were from Crab Orchard and stayed with Polly while George Miller made trips for cattle and to establish the ranch at Miami, OK, - across the state line and 20 miles from the home in Missouri. George W. Carson, a brother was in party when he made first trip to Texas.
In 1880, he sold home in Newtonia, MO and the store and moved family to Baxter Springs, Kansas, 5 miles from Miami Ranch. Here, Sept. 9, 1881, third son, George Lee Miller, was born. In spring of 1881 after Polly had made the annual trip to Crab Orchard, they moved to Winfield, Kansas. There they began living with servants, a new carriage, prancing bays, also a surrey and gentle mare for Mrs. Miller. George then attended church in "formal" clothes, silk hat, and gold headed walking stick.
Joe Carson Miller was sent horseback by his father George, when 11 years old, to Baxter Springs, Kansas to tell 'White Eagle' and Cherokee Indians their new assigned land was desirable. In 1879, Cherokees accepted the land from the Government. Col. Joe was loved forever by Indians there and we all know that in Oklahoma they had built up a big ranch near Ponca City, (south of Winfield home) and were building a huge home three stories and basement with everything you could imagine when Col. George Miller, the father, died of pneumonia at the ranch on Sat., April 25, 1903 - age 61 years - body was shipped to Crab Orchard, Kentucky. Polly and children finished house by Xmas 1903 and ate 1st meal Xmas Day. Same house burned 1909 January, second one they called the "White House". Polly died July 31, 1918 - age 72"

Notes for GEORGE WASHINGTON MILLER:
Second son of Almina Fish and George W. Miller, Sr.
1850 Census for Lincoln Co., KY lists him as 7 years old which would make his brith year 1843.
Reared by his grandfather John Fish on the Fish Plantation near Crab Orchard, KY.
Per family tree of Junaita Witt, after marriage to Mary Ann Carson they managed the Fish Plantation before moving west.
Moved from Rockcastle Co., KY to Newtonia, MO. Owned a general store in Newtonia.
1880 moved from Newtonia, Mo. to Baxter Springs, Kansas.
Large headstone in Fish Family Cemetery on the original Fish Plantation in Lincoln Co., KY. Headstone reads, "George W. Miller, born Feb. 26, 1842 Lincoln Co., KY, died Apr. 25, 1903, 101 Ranch, Bliss OT" (Oklahoma Territory). Still in good shape in May 2001, but overgrown with weeds.
To find cemetery: "Start at the Rockcastle/Lincoln county line on Route #150, go westward on #150 .8 mile to old farmhouse road on the right. Turn right, go .2 mile to house. Park car. The cemetery is about 200' up the rise from the house. The cemetery is in a field and is fenced. The weeds are head high and trees have been cut & dropped into the cemetery & have broken the fence and some of the stones." In May 2001, there was a locked gate at the road entrance from #150. Cows were in the pasture. The house is deserted and with the guidance of Jeff Mullens of McKnight Funeral Home in Crab Orchard, we climbed the fence and walked to the cemetery. Per Jeff, the gate could not be legally locked because of access issues for the cemetery, he would talk to the sheriff about it.
There were also headstones for Cyrus Sowder (b. Aug 1847, d. July 29, 1864), and also John A. Gove (b. 22 May 1816, d. 19 Oct 1848) - unknown family connections.

Sent by Frances Carson Hubert, Yukon, OK:
"Sketch of 101 Ranch" (Oklahoma History)
In 1870 after bad luck on Fish place George and "Polly" going to California, stoped in Newtonia, MO., established a home and store where Alma was born June 21, 1875, also Zachary Taylor born April 26, 1878. Some of Polly's brothers were from Crab Orchard and stayed with Polly while George Miller made trips for cattle and to establish the ranch at Miami, OK, - across the state line and 20 miles from the home in Missouri. George W. Carson, a brother was in party when he made first trip to Texas.
In 1880, he sold home in Newtonia, MO and the store and moved family to Baxter Springs, Kansas, 5 miles from Miami Ranch. Here, Sept. 9, 1881, third son, George Lee Miller, was born. In spring of 1881 after Polly had made the annual trip to Crab Orchard, they moved to Winfield, Kansas. There they began living with servants, a new carriage, prancing bays, also a surrey and gentle mare for Mrs. Miller. George then attended church in "formal" clothes, silk hat, and gold headed walking stick.

given the middle name William after one of Kit Carson's grandfathers-eventually moved west with G.W. Miller and served as one of his first cowboys on the Texas cattle trails.

He married JENNIE B. GALLOWAY February 2, 1884, daughter of FRANK GALLOWAY and ARMINTA KERLY. She was born 1865 (Source: Tombstone Picture.), and died

Notes for ALBERT T. FISH, JR.:
Kentucky: A History of the State, Perrin, Battle, Kniffin, 4th ed., 1887, Madison County. ALBERT T. FISH was born February 18, 1859, in Rockcastle County, Ky., and is a son of A. T. and Samantha (Haley) Fish, to whom five sons and six daughters were born, and who were also born in Rockcastle County, near Mt. Vernon. The father was a son of Jesse and Eveline (Anderson) Fish, natives of Garrard and Lincoln Counties, respectively. Jesse Fish was born in 1796 and served as surveyor and judge of Rockcastle County, whence he had moved with his parents when a lad. He reared four sons and one daughter by his first marriage. His second wife was Mrs. Mary Butner, whose maiden name was Hubbard. The issue of this second marriage was one son. She had born by her former husband four sons and one daughter. Jesse Fish died in September, 1883, and was a son of Thomas Fish, who married a Givins. They came from Virginia as early as 1790, and settled in Garrard County, afterward in Rockcastle County. They reared a family of seven sons and three daughters. Thomas Fish was of English origin, in politics a Whig, and died at the ripe age of eighty-five. Mrs. Samantha Fish was a daughter of John and Matilda (Lankford) Haley, who were early settlers of Rockcastle County, and reared a large family of children. Mr. Haley was a substantial farmer and slave owner, served as a common soldier in the war of 1812 and died early in life. His widow still survives him. Albert T. Fish was reared on a farm and received such an education as the common schools of his neighborhood afforded, sufficient to enable him to teach in the common schools of Rockcastle. When he arrived at maturity he engaged in the mercantile business at Berea, where he has been successfully engaged ever since. He has the largest and most extensive business in Berea, and by his energies and industry he has made life a success. In February, 1880, he was united in marriage to Jennie Galloway, a daughter of Frank and Arminta (Kerly) Galloway, natives of Madison County. The issue from this happy union was two children, Addie and Grover C. Mrs. Fish is a member of the F. & A. M. and in politics is a Democrat.

Marriage Notes for GEORGE CARSON and FLORENCE SMOCK:
From the Blackwell Times-Record, Thursday, January 11, 1900:
"SURPRISED EVERYBODY.
Geo. Carson is known by almost every man, woman and child in Blackwell, and has a friend in every one of them and they will all be surprised to learn of his marriage. It seems that George quietly slipped out of town, and without even informing his parents of his intention, journeyed to Lawrence, Kansas, and there took unto himself a wife, in the person of Miss Florence Smock, daughter of ex-county treasurer S. J. Smock. The wedding occurred on the 28th day of December, and the happy couple arrived here Monday evening asking for the Carson's parental blessing which they readily obtained. Mr. Carson has selected for his bride a young lady, who is well and favorable known in this city for her many accomplishments of hand, head and heart, and he is indeed fortunate in winning her for a life companion. George Carson, as we said before has almost as many friends as there are inhabitants of Blackwell, and he is a most exemplary young man. The Times-Record joins with the many friends in extending to Mr. and Mrs. George M. Carson, congratulations and best wishes."

Notes for DOROTHY RUTH CARSON:
Died in Wichita, Sedgwick Co., Kansas at Wesley Medical Center. Buried in IOOF Cemetery, Blackwell, Kay Co., OK in Carson Plot. Headstone reads: "Dorothy R. Carson, Oct. 31, 1901 - Oct. 10, 1978". Undertaker: Cochran of Wichita, KS.
Never married. Lived with roommate Mary Jo McPherson for at least 30 years, last at 743 South Fountain in Wichita.
Per death cert. she died at 8:15am on 10/23/1978 of cardiac arrest due to cardiogenic shock as a result of calcific aortic stenosis.
Taught elementary school starting in 1926 in Newton, KS. Started in the Wichita system in 1937, teaching at Finn, McCormick, Sunnyside & Hyde elementary schools before retiring in 1966.
Obituary from the Wichita Eagle, October 11, 1978:
"TEACHER DIES 11 YEARS AFTER EYE TRANSPLANT
Eleven years ago, Dorothy Ruth Carson was thrilled to see a blue jay clearly again. She had just received her first eye transplant operation.
Her other eye was replaced by a similar operation, and Carson's new eyes served her well until her death Tuesday at age 76, according to her roommate, Mary Jo McPherson.
'It's just like a miracle,' Carson had remarked, 'Colors are so much brighter. I'm startled sometimes'.
Carson's transplant operations enabled her to read, knit and sew, McPherson said.
She had suffered from endothelial dystrophy.
Carson was a veteran elementary school teacher. She began teaching in Newton, Kan., in 1926 and moved to Wichita in 1937. During her tenure in the Wichita school system she taught at Finn, McCormick, Sunnyside and Hyde elementary schools, before she retired in 1966.
She is survived by a brother, Joe Carson of Phoenix. A memorial has been established with the Kansas Foundation for the Blind.
Cochran Mortuary is in charge."

HISTORY OF THE FISH FAMILY

By Henry Fish ---1912?

1.

The following is a sketch from memory of the Fish Berney family written January 1st, 869 by Jesse Fish, son of Thomas and Winaford Fish.

(ENGLAND → William Fish & Elizabeth (King) → Father Peter King.

My grandfather Fish and William Berney are our most remote ancestors, that I have any particular account of and most of my information was verbally obtained from my mother. MARY (CHIATT) FISH But as she was a woman of strong mind and gifted memory I am sure she is correct in her account. I do not remember of hearing the given name of my Grandfather Fish. (William FROM ENGLAND)

He and two other brothers emigrated from England. Not a great while afterward one of the brothers was killed by the indians. Finally, the other two became separated and never met again. My Grandfather Fish finally drifted to the colony of North Carolina, married and after quite a family of children were born to them, their Mother died while the children were quite young. Soon afterwards their father was killed by hostile indians while on a hunting expedition, so two of the three Fish brothers were killed by the indians, so the children were scattered. My father, but a small boy, was bound to a party, who never took any pains to inform him as to his ancestors so he grew up without much knowledge of them. His opportunity for an education was poor but he got hold of enough of the fundamental branches to serve him in after years. ✓✓

He was liberated at the age of twenty one, joined the army as a volunteer served his time fighting against the Tories and the Indians, who were giving great trouble at that time during the Revolutionary war. After this he returned home. About the year 1760 he was married to Miss Winaford Berney, my Mother, she being the oldest daughter of William Berney of Gilford County, North Carolina. My father and mother after five children were born to them packed up their little household effects on horses, took Daniel Boone's old trail through the wilderness and hostile indians by the way of Cumberland Gap, Heazel Patch, now in Laurel County, Kentucky, settled some three miles above where Paint Lick is now located on Paint Lick Creek, near the mouth of the Walnut Meadow fork of said creek then in Madison county. This was in 1791, while the indians were very troublesome, killing and carrying away women and children. After killing Mr. Stinson, his nearest neighbor and a man by the name of Bowman, they carried off one of Stinson's grown daughters. Stinson being a strong man fought for his life, succeeded in getting the knife from the Indian who killed him and put him to death with his own knife. They carried the girl across the Ohio River and kept her a number of years after which she was purchased by some traders and returned to her people. My youngest brother James Fish, then a babe, was carried all the way through that lonely long and perilous journey, in my mother's lap on horse back. The names of the children born in North Carolina are: William, nine years old; Ann, seven; Thomas, five; John, three; James, one. They resided on Paint Lick until four more children were born, myself, Jesse and David, Polly and Elizabeth.

About the year 1800 they moved and settled near the forks of Roundstone and Big Clear Creek, then in Madison County, but now Rockastle County, Ky. After settling there three more children were born to them, Jane and Pleasant. The youngest died not living to be given a name. I was born after my mother was past fifty years old.

The eleven children all lived to be grown and married many years before the death of my parents. Father and Mother never moved any more. My father died August 15, 1840 at the advanced age of 85 years, buried at the Old Reynfrow Creek Cemetery three miles north of Mt. Vernon on the Mt. Vernon and Richmond road. He was Justice of the Peace and also Sheriff of Rockcastle County under whom I served as Deputy doing the business as my father was quite old. My Mother survived him several years and died at her daughter's, Mrs. William Smith near Mt. Vernon, in 1850. She was buried by the side of my father, and was born March 10th, 1768, being 84 years old when she died.

William Berney settled in North Carolina in 1740. He raised six children, three sons and three daughters. Names, Wilafora; Elizabeth; John; David; William and Jane. My Mother carried down the names of her brothers and sisters, in naming her own children. There was not a double name in the Berney family neither was there a double name in our family of eleven children.

Grandfather Berney was very popular in the community, a man of considerable wealth which consisted in land and slaves. Was a very benevolent man. He was pretty well broke up at the close of the Revolution. He was a soldier. He finally emigrated to Kentucky and located near Harrodsburg, only living there a few years, moved back South and settled in La Washata Parish. He was twice married. I visited him in 1819 on my return to Kentucky on foot from New Orleans. No children by last marriage.

My Mother's next oldest sister married a man named Richard Long. Settled in Ziaon Church River, Russle County, near Abingdon. He died there. His widow died at the home of her oldest son, James Long of Alabama, a wealthy planter.

John Berney, the oldest brother of my Mother settled in Louisana on Big Red River near Alexandra. He was a very prosperous cotton planter, when he was assasinated by one of his negro men while sitting at the supper table. He represented his Parrish in the Legislature. He left several small children. I was told that the negro was caught and sentenced to burn at stake. Likely it was Linchers Jury.

David Berney, next oldest son of William Berney settled in Tennessee in about 1825 on Cumberland River below Nashville. Had quite a family, last heard from William the youngest son, settled in Louisana. He was a cotton planter, well to do and died from lung trouble. Left six children, all grown and married. When I visited them in 1819, their Mother died when they were small. Jane, the youngest of Grandfather Berney's daughters married a man named Peterson, and they settled near the yellow banks on the Ohio River in Kentucky. His wife died there, left a family of small children. He married again. This closes the Biography of the Berney family.

I

Coming no further down than the third generation which includes himself at this writing, so far as I can learn there are now only four living of the fourth generation. They are the children of Jesse Fish, the foregoing or above writer all the posterity of the eleven children of Thomas and Winaford Fish have passed away. The fifth one living ten years ago, was W. M. Fish who was many years circuit county clerk. The four living are A. T. Fish of Wildie, Kentucky, Julia Azbill, of Lexington, William C. Fish, of Paint Lick, Kentucky and Henry Fish who will fill out this biography. Ages of the survivors as follows: A. T. Fish 88, Julia Azbill 83, W. C. Fish 81 and J. Henry Fish, 79.

Having traveled extensively I have come in touch with my people and feel that I am able to give very near a correct Biography of same.

My father Judge Jesse Fish was about 75 years of age when he wrote out the above. I will soon be 79. I will now try to fill out the last five generations as my Father only gave three, we are now started on the fifth generation through the family of A. T. Fish, my oldest brother. He has two great, great grandchildren, his entire family now living, number about eighty-two.

b. 1796

William Fish the oldest child and son of Thomas and Winaford Fish was first married to Miss Merrett, sister of Michael and Jack Merritt of Garrad County. Four children born to them, Green, Winaford, Margaret, Ann and Bernice. One son is living from Green's first marriage which was to Miss Telitha Wallace of Garrad, one by his second wife who was Mrs. McDowel of near St. Joe, Mo. One heir survived her, a son Stephen G. No issue by his last two wives he having been married four times. His last wife survived him. His two sons live near Milana, Kansas where he died.

Winnie married John Cook. He died early in life, three children were born to them, Ann, Phebie Jane, and John, the latter died at the Old Soldiers Home near Los Angeles, Cal. He served as Captain in the federal army. Margaret Ann, second daughter of William Fish married Phillip Singleton of Rockcastle, and they raised a large family. Several of them are living in Rockcastle. Bernittie married Pleasant Ramsey. She died early in life left two little boys. They finally went to Indiana where Frank accumulated a vast fortune, but died a few years ago. Joe the oldest lives there yet. My Uncle William married the second time last wife was Miss Annie Logan of Lincoln County. Four children were born to them. Hearret Jane; W. M. and Thomas. My Uncle died, his widow surviving a number of years. She died of cancer of the stomach. Harret, the oldest daughter of William and Ann Fish married Merritt Singleton. She lived but a short time, dying of lung trouble. Jane, her sister died of same trouble, not married. Thomas lived to be an old bachelor died at his brother's, W. M. Fish.

W. M. Fish, first married Miss Loucinda Howel of Rockcastle, separated a few days after marriage. Later he married Miss Telitha French, six children being born to them. One son and one daughter died of consumption not married. Two of their daughters married Jesse Fish son of A. T. Fish. Both died from consumption. Their two sons Jones and Green are fine citizens, Green is a farmer and minister, married Miss Susie Hiatt having one son Jesse.

Merritt, they having four children. This was a very interesting family. He was a merchant in Mt. Vernon doing a fine business. My Uncle, William Fish, son of Thomas and Winaford Fish was Justice High Sheriff, and my father, Jesse Fish was his Deputy doing the business. He and his father belonged to General Shelby, on his tour through Indiana fighting back the hostile Indians who were killing and scalping men, women and children in 1812. Later he was appointed Colonel of a regiment of state Militia. He lived all his life on Reynfro Creek.

Uncle Jack Fish, second son of Thomas and Winaford Fish married Polly Hiatt of Rockcastle County. Eight children were born to them, three boys and five girls. When the oldest son was learning to ride horseback the horse became frightened threw the little fellow, his foot hung in the stirrup and as the horse ran through the gate to the barn lot, his head struck against the fence and knocked his brains out. Next oldest, John, or Jack as he was called, married Miss Mildred Ferrill of Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, quite a family of children were born to them. They emigrated to Arkansas, there they both died. Some of their children still reside there, some in Texas and Oaklahoma. James, their third son married Miss Mary Miller of Mt. Vernon. They separated. She is still living at Mt. Vernon, 85 years old, having outlived her second husband Judge Caster, she never had any children. He went to Texas, married there, moved back to Lincoln County and settled on a position of his father's farm near Crab Orchard and died there. His widow remained there several years. One of her sons was killed there, and one got an arm shot off. She with the balance of her children returned to Texas.

+ Almira, oldest daughter married Jefferson Stigall, step-brother to my mother. They raised a large family. He died near Crab Orchard. She died in Texas among a portion of her family. One son, Hiatt Stigall lives in Crab Orchard. Almira, second daughter married George Miller. After six children were born to them and he had disipated and run through a large fortune left him by his Father, he treated her so bad she left him and went home to her father, lived on his farm until her six children were grown up. One son was killed in the Rebel army, her oldest daughter married Addison Merritt, of Garrad County. She, Almira, married Judge John E Carson, one son was born to them. David Carson who lives in Tennessee. The well known G. W. Miller, the father of Miller Brothers of 101 Ranch, Oaklahoma, second son was owner of the greatest Ranches at his death. Alvina, youngest daughter married a railroad man named Johnson. They lived in Tennessee. Her youngest son by Miller, I learn is in Kansas City in a private Asylum. Alvina, the third daughter of Jack and Polly Fish married Frank West, of Lexington. They emigrated to St. Jo. Mo. Had two sons, Jack and Frank. She and he died, leaving the two boys somewhere in that country. Alvira married Devon Gover of Lincoln County. They had seven children, the most of them live in Lincoln County. Mary, youngest daughter of Jack and Polly Fish married James Crawford of Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. After three children were born to them, she died of consumption at Mt. Vernon. Crawford moved to Mo. Uncle Jack Fish had accumulated considerable wealth before he died at his old home two miles south of Crab Orchard. He sustained loss of more than $10,000 by Duel and his army, camping on him a week after his death, they dug up parcels of gold in half dozen places in sums from three to nine hundred dollars in a place. Whether it was all found or not we will never know.

He lives in Ponca City, Oaklahoma and is in the real estate business. My Uncle James and Aunt Sally Fish died and were buried at the old homestead three miles northwest of Mt. Vernon.

If you will let me, I wish to pencil a few lines to the sweet memory of Masinda Fish Carson. At my mother's grave. She left three of us little fellows that needed a mother's care while the two oldest could get along at home. The next two were older than myself, were readily taken by two Aunts. While I a babe of only twenty four months, must necessarily be quite a charge. Finally cousin Masinda asked Aunt Sallie her mother if she might take me. Her Mother consented by telling her that she must care for me. She said "I Will."

There never was a fond Mother that cared for me more tenderly and loningly than that sweet girl then only 17 years old. She mothered me for six years until she married. She took me with her and kept me until my father married again. The last words she ever spoke to one on her death bed were, she called me to her, placed her arms about my neck and said, "Henry, I am going to die and I want to tell you I haven't a child that I love any better than I do you."

The next order of the sons of Thomas and Winaford Fish is David who went to Arkansas, settled near his brother Thomas who had been in that country some time, married a sister to his brother Thomas's wife, a Miss Hemphill. He became a cotton planter and was prospering when he took a boat load of cotton to New Orleans, the product of his farm. That was in 1832, the year the colony first made its appearance in the United States. So he was stricken with the dreaded disease, died there and was buried in the public burying grounds.

Father visited his widow in 1819 on his return from New Orleans. Said the girl was in very bad health. They were never heard from afterwards.

My father, Jesse Fish next in order of the sons of Thomas and Winaford Fish was born near Paint Lick, Kentucky. About the year of 1818 or 1819. They made a trip or two to New Orleans on flat boats, loaded with tobacco, and whisky from out of the Kentucky River. Loaded on at Boonsboro, he walked back. He only attended school about three months. Studied surveying, at Richmond, taught a school near Boone Ferry. Later on he acted as Deputy Shoriff under Captain Henry Anderson who lived where Brodhead is situated. About that time my Father Jesse Fish married Miss Evaline Caft, Anderson's X → youngest daughter. Six children were born to them, the first child, daughter died not more than two or three years old, the others are Albert T., Egbert, Julia A., William C. and J. Henry, the writer. William, youngest son, married a Miss Estell of Lexington where they reside. They have three children, named Clifton, William and Louise. ✓Ida, second daughter of Wm. C. and Martha Fish, married Joseph Mason, a farmer of Madison County. They have five children, named Odie, Culvens, Edith, William Joe, and Pearl who died. He has a farm and is getting along nicely.

✓ Fannie, youngest daughter of Wm. C. and Martha Fish married Fleming Garrett of Madison County. They have two children, Martha and Robert. Garrett died at Winchester some six years ago. She remains a widow and lives in Richmond, where she is schooling her children. They having quite a little fortune left them by their great Uncle William Lane. Wm. C. Fish and wife, mother and father of the family are successful farmers and have accumulated considerable wealth. They now live in Paint Lick. He is nearing 81 years of age, a very strong man and also active for his age.

X James Henry Fish, fourth and youngest son of Jesse and Evaline Fish, after spending several years of my early life in Kansas City, Mo., and Illinois. I returned to Kentucky. Later returned to Kentucky in 1879. Married Miss Rebecca Alice Humber of Crab Orchard, Kentucky, sister to the wife of James S. Fish. Our first baby was born in Pueblo, Col., where we had gone in search of health, He died at a year old on our way to Kentucky. I located in Crab Orchard and engaged in the mercantile business. Our second son was named H. H. Fish. My wife fell and was an invalid. After seven years I moved West again and engaged in the mercantile trade.

My wife's health became worse again, so we went to a warmer climate, Texas. There I purchased a herd of 700 head of sheep. From disease, careless attention and other causes I lost the entire herd, never realized a dollar. The Texas climate filled my wife so full of malaria that she couldn't remain there so I sent her to Hot Springs, Ark., for three months under two physicians, one for the day and one for the night. After she had recovered sufficiently we returned to Maryville, Mo. Remained there two years. My wife's health grew worse so made another change. Moved to Orlando, Fla. where I was engaged in the mercantile business. After the first summer my wife became so full of malaria that I was compelled to take her to the seacoast for the benefit of the baths and sea breeze. We were at Pablo Beach when the yellow fever broke out there and at Jacksonville in 1886. I had exchanged my land and city property in Orlando to a farm in North Western Kansas. As the first case that broke out at Jacksonville was a man that had been occupying my house only a week or two, before, we packed up in double quick, took the first train up to Jacksonville, 18 miles. There I took the first train north, it being the last train allowed to leave the city. The Quarantine shut in everybody. They stopped us all day next day in the pine woods of Georgia before they would let the train pass through a city, I forgot the name. We cleaned up everything the old darkies that lived around in the woods had that we could eat. Didn't leave an old hen or rooster, but along late in the evening the city authorities sent a spring wagon load of provisions. They finally let us pass, but we were compelled to remain in the cars until we got to Louisville. There I had to prevaricate to get a place to stop over night. I went straight on to Kansas. People were as afraid of us as if we had been snakes. Even after we landed at Concordiaros they were scared of us. We were six months getting our Household goods out of Jacksonville. The Kansas climate agreed with my wife all right for a few years, but it wore out. The cyclones, tornados and storms seemed to work on my wife in a way that she finally fell under nervous prostration. After she became so bad that it required all my time to wait on her, my physician said there was only one thing left for me to do. She was past medical aid, and that was to take her to southern California, where there were no storms, thunder or lightening. She improved and did fairly well for a while. Finally I placed her in a hospital in Los Angeles. She was there operated on the third time. She failed to get all right. I finally sold out my business and in order to save her mind as well as body I purchased a turnout and traveled around and camped out, going all the while into new territory, then she built up and was herself again, and was at the time of her death which was at Los Angeles. I was in Kentucky at the time. Had her remains brought to me at Crab Orchard where she is buried. My son, Herbert, still lives in Los Angeles where I left him in 1896, before the death of his mother. I have not seen him since. He was married a year to Miss Susan Burror of Los Angeles. He holds a position in a wholesale and retail mercantile house there.

Julia A., daughter of Jesse and Evaline Fish first married John Haley of Rockcastle, who represented this and Laurel County in the Legislature. After three children were born to them one died a young babe, and the two others, Martha and Jesse J. Haley were small when she married William Azbell a prominent minister of the Christian church. Martha Haley married James Mason Aldrige of Clark County. Seven children were born to them, three sons and four daughters, named: Annie married a Ballern, they have three sons: Jennie married Fox and they have one child. Callie and the other sister both are married and have children all live in Clark County. Clay, oldest son my wife's health became worse again, so we went to a warmer climate, Texas, where I purchased a herd of 700 head of sheep. From disease, careless attention and other causes I lost the entire herd, never realizing a dollar. In Texas between Clinton my wife got so full of malaria that the leading physician there ordered her to Hot Springs, Ark., for three months under two physicians, one for the day and one for the night. After she had recovered sufficiently we returned to Maryville, Mo. Remained there two years. My wife's health grew worse so made another change. Moved to Orlando, Fla. where I was engaged in the mercantile business. After the first summer my wife was so full of malaria that I was compelled to take her to the seacoast for the benefit of the baths and sea breezes. We were at Pablo Beach when the yellow fever broke out there and at Jacksonville in 1888. I had exchanged my land and city property in Orlando for a farm in north western Kansas. As the first case that broke out at Jacksonville was a man that had been occupying my house only a week or two, before, we packed up in double quick, took the first train up to Jacksonville, 18 miles. They finally let us pass, but we were compelled to remain in the cars until we got to Louisville. There I had to prevaricate to get a place to stay over night. I went straight on to Kansas. People were as afraid of us as if we had been lepers. Even after we landed at Centerville they were afraid of us. We were six months getting our household goods out of Jacksonville. The Kansas climate agreed with my wife all right for a few years, but it wore out. The cyclones, thunder and storms seemed to work on my wife in a way that she finally fell under nervous prostration. After she became so bad that it required all my time to wait on her, my physician said there was only one thing left, that is to try it. She was past medical aid, and that was to take her to southern California, where there were no storms, thunder or lightning. She improved and did fairly well for a while. Finally I placed her in a sanitarium in Los Angeles. She got there operated on two times. She failed to get all right. I finally sold out my business and in order to ease her mind as well as mine I purchased a turnout and traveled around and camped out, going all the while into new territory, then she built up and was herself again, and was at the time of her death which was in the kitchen. I was in Kentucky at the time. Had her remains brought to me at Fish Orchard where she is buried. My son, Forrest, still lives in Los Angeles where I left him in 1901, before the death of his mother. I have not seen him since. He was married a year or more ago when he was of Los Angeles. He holds a position in a wholesale and retail automobile house there.

Julia A., daughter of James and Evaline Fish first married John Haley of Hardcastle, who represented this and Laurel county in the Legislature. After three children were born to them she died a young lady, and the two daughters, Martha and James J. Haley were small when she married William Howell a prominent minister of the Christian church. Martha Haley married Jacob Mason Aldridge of Clark County. Seven children were born to them, three sons and four daughters, namely Julia married a Ballard, they have three sons. Jessie married of J. M and Martha Aldrige married Miss Lila Fox. He is the present clerk of the circuit court of Clark County, and they have one daughter, Leo, next oldest is not married. Haley is married and they all live in Clark County. My sister Julia has six children by her last marriage. W. P. Azbill, the oldest son, William next, Joseph next, Carrol, next Elmer youngest. Annie, her daughter by Azbill married Mason Morris a well-to-do farmer. They live in Lexington and have four children, all grown. Henry, the oldest son is married. Willie Waller P and Callie are single at home with the old folks. Mr. Morris is an invalid. His wife carries on the most fashionable dress making establishment in Lexington.

Jesse J. Haley, son by first marriage of my sister, is a graduate of the Theological School at Lexington, Kentucky is called one of Kentucky's ablest preachers of the Christian faith. He now lives at California where he owns an orchard and a vinyard. Still preaches. They have four daughters, two married and two single. The son, oldest child, died recently. Jessie and Frances are single, Annie and Helen are married.

Jese J. Haley's wife was Miss Lizie Clark a sister to Champ Clark present speaker of the House of Congress. My sister, mother of these two families is a widow living with her daughter at Lexington now nearing her 83 years, retains all her faculties and is a bright old lady.

Pleasant Fish, youngest son of Thomas and Winaford Fish married Miss Eliza Roberts. They had no children. Lived to be old and died near where they had spent all their days.

Youngest daughter, Jane, of Thomas and Winaford Fish married Eli Palmer of Garrad County. After several children were born to them they moved to Pettuce County, Mo., where they were lost sight of it seemed by the other members of the family, so I pass them by.

My Aunt Annie, oldest daughter of Thomas and Winaford Fish married General William Smith of near Mt. Vernon. Six sons and two daughters were born to them. Oldest son, Thomas married Miss Polina Evans of Pulaski. There were two sons born to them. William died, Joseph was killed or died in the Confederate Army. Elizabeth, oldest daughter married Dr. William Brown of Mt. Vernon. He died a short time ago. She still lives at Parkvill, Kentucky. They have several sons and daughters. Ellen next to the oldest, married Judge George McClure. They had three children. One married Simon Davis now living in Lancaster. Thomas lives at Mt. Vernon, and is married. The Judge and wife are both dead. William Smith, son of Gen. Wm. Smith and Ann Smith married Withers of Lincoln County. After five children were born to them, she hanged herself and left a young baby named Louis. I don't know what became of him. The other names are Elizabeth, who married H. P. Newcomb of Mt. Vernon, and three children were born to them. James, oldest son of William Smith and wife was killed in the Confederate Rank. William died here not long ago. Married, no heirs. His wife is now in Lunatic Asylum at Lexington.

Major Alfred Smith, third son of William and Ann Smith married Miss Nancy Middleton of Garrad County. They had a large family. I will not trace them all. Mary, oldest daughter of Alfred and Nancy, married the late Milton J. Miller, of Mt. Vernon. The next oldest married James Myers, next also married Frank Myers and the next married Brook Graves. G. Washington Smith fourth son of William and Ann Smith emigrated to Texas while young. Accumulated a fortune at Law practice and dealing in cattle. He was in the Confederate Congress. He married in Texas, and he and wife died long ago. Left three sons, one, the oldest lives in Lexington named Lucien Smith. The other is in Texas. Lowndes and Scholly. All three sons dead (1942)

James, the fifth son of William and Ann Smith died an old bachelor. Pendleton, the youngest died youngt Glatha, the oldest daughter of Ann and William Smith married ~~Michael~~ Mitchell Merritt. They had five daughters and five sons. Granvill and Jack were captains in the Confederate Army. William went to Kansas, don't know as to him. Alva married a Miss Hunt. Had five daughters. Johes Fish of Mt. Vernon married Miss Ellen William Jones of Wildie married John French. Henry Catron married two, and Jones Hiatt one. I will not trace their families as it is too tedious.

Michael and Glatha Merritt's oldest daughter married Jerial Moberly of Garrad. Ann next daughter married John Butner, my step-brother. Martha, next married Josephus Keaton. Next married William Elmore of Madison County. Youngest daughter married John Hunt. I will not trace their families. Aunt Ann and William Smith's second daughter married George Merritt of Garrad. Her name was Eliza. They moved to Texas where some of their family live. James Merritt of Mt. Vernon is one. Third and youngest daughter of Anne and William Smith married a Mr. Haselwood. Both died young and left two little boys, who were raised by their grandparents. Names, Thomas and Joseph, both died in Texas. Josephus was married and a prominent lawyer. Thomas never married.

Aunt Pollie Craig second daughter of Thomas and Winaford Fish married William Craig. They lived to be old people, never had any children and both died at Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. Elizabeth, next oldest married George Proctor. She died at Mt. Vernon, an old lady, had no children. She kept my sister Julia for several years after our Mother died. Aunt Polly Craig kept brother William.

I don't believe I mentioned my father's second marriage. He married Mrs. Pollie Butner of Kingston, Madison County. She had five children as follows: Ester, Ann, married Brock Graves. William married a Miss Graves. John married a Miss Merritt. Fleming was three times married. First wife was Miss Somers Chestnut, second, Miss Elizabeth Stuart, third Miss Munda of Madison. She survived him and lives in Mt. Vernon, Kentucky.

My father, Jesse Fish and last wife had one son named Jesse F. Fish. He lived to about the age of thirty-five and died of consumption, was buried at Scaffold Cane Cemetary. My step-mother and father are buried at Mt. Vernon, Kentucky. He served his country, as an officer more than forty years, died at the old age of near eighty-eight years old. Retained his faculties until the last.

I will pencil a few lines in general terms to our family. About one hundred and twenty years ago our Grandparents emigrated to Kentucky. They would number up into the thousands counting the dead and living. If there has ever been a lunatic in our family, I have never heard of it or a deformed child, or an idiot, save in one family. That of Judge John M. Fish. Two of his grand children are rather weak minded.

To James S. Fish, Esq.
Crab Orchard, Ky.

Dear Nephew:

According to your request, I have now undertaken to write out and send you a short traditionary sketch pertaining to the genealogy of the Fish and Birney families from whom myself and you are descendants. My Grandfather Fish and Birney are our remotest ancestors that I have had any particular account of and most of my information on that subject was long since verbally obtained from Mother and of course my narrative will be a little indefinite but as she appeared to be gifted with a very sound recollection I incline to believe that her statements were generally near about correct. I don't recollect of ever hearing the name of my Grandfather (your Great Grandfather Fish, who emigrated from England and settled in the Colony of North Carolina something over one hundred years since but I have no recollection at this time of ever hearing anything said in relation to the name of the county where he lived and the most particular account I ever had concerning his is that he was killed by a hostile Indian while he was riding on a hunting excursion near a certain water course in N. C.) that has been going by the name of Fish's River. I have no account as to the number of his childr but have been informed that his son Thomas (my Father) was a small boy at the time of his Father's death, and his Mother having previously died, caused him to be placed in the hands of some disinterested individuals who (as I am informed) seemed to care very little about his future welfare, therefore he was compelled thereafter to stern the tide of adversity the best way that he could until relieved by becoming of sufficient age to manage his own concern, and subsequently to that time he joined the army as a volunteer and served a tour of duty on an expedition against the Tories and Indians who were being very troublesome to the frontier settlers in that part of the country during the time of the old having marched through a village then in North Carolina called Moravian Town where he saw a Tory man hanging by the neck and from appearance had been in that condition for a day or two and the soldiers were not permitted to take him down in order that he might be buried. About the year 1781 he was married to my Mother (late Wineford Birney) she being the eldest child of William Birney who I believe was residing in Guilford County, N.C. and I suppose (from information) that my Father and Mother emigrated from that State to Madison County, Kentucky, packing a few household goods and their five children on horses traveling on Boone Trace by way of Cumberland Gap and Hazle Patch through a wilderness and settled on Point Lick Creek a small distance above the mouth of Walnut Meadow fork about the year 1791, while Indians were being very troublesome in the way of killing and robbing of imigrants on that route. Their five children brought with them to Kentucky were respectively named William who was about 9 years old, Ann 7 years, Thomas 5, John 3, and James (your father) was probably less than one year old, as I have frequently heard Mother speak of his not being weaned from her breast at the time they first arrived in Kentucky. They continued to reside at the place where they first settled on Point Lick Creek until the number of their children had increased to nine by the addition of two sons named David and Jesse, and two daughters, Polly and Betsy. Some time about the year 1800 they again moved with their 9 child before named and settled on waters of Roundstone some three fourths of a mile from mouth of Big Clear Creek, then in Madison County, but about the year 1810 was taken into Rockcastle. After settling at the last named place they had an increase of three more children, one daughter and two sons, the youngest one of all being a boy that was born dead and, of course, never had a given name, the two surviving ones being named Jane and Pleasant, making the total number of their living children eleven (11) all of them were grown and married a considerable length of time previously to the death of our parents. My father continued to live the balance of his days at the

where he first settled on waters of Roundstone and there died the 13th day of Augus in the year 184[illegible] and was buried next day at the old Grave Yard near to where Renfr Creek meeting house formerly stood. He had no record of his age but was supposed to be near 85 (eighty five) years old at the time of his death. He had acted as Justice of the Peace and member of Rockcastle County Court for some eight or ten years and afterwards was appointed by the Governor and commissioned to fill the office of high Sheriff under whom I acted as deputy during his term of two years. My Mother (your grandmother Wineford Fish) being his widow, continued to live several years at the old place where he had died, but finally went to stay with her daughter Ann Smith near to Mount Vernon, where she continued to remain until the time of her death which I think occurred in the Spring of 1850, and she was buried by the side of your Grandfather. I was away from home at the time of her death and burial and therefore have failed to recollect the particular date. To the best of my recollection I have heard her say that she was born on the 10th day of March 1757, which made her about 84 (eighty four) years of age the time of her death.

In undertaking to give you a genealogical account of my Mother's ancestry, I presume the effort will be very nearly as vague and desultory as that which I have given in Relation to our lineage on the paternal side. My information only reaches back to her father (your great grandfather) William Birney who I suppose settled in North Carolina a long time ago, probably more than a hundred years since and raised six children, three sons and the same number of daughters, their names in rotation were Wineford, Betsy, John, David, William and Jane, who were mostly raised under the care of a stepmother, their own Mother having died while they were quite young. Grandfather Birney was said to be a sensible and benevolent kind of man and had accumulated a good deal of property [illegible] but [illegible] wrested before the war ended.

I have also been informed that he took an active part as a soldier in the Continental Army.

He moved with his family from North Carolina to Kentucky and settled near Harrodsburgh in an early day where he remained but a few years and finally emigrated to Louisiana and settled in Washita Parish and there he continued to reside during the remainder of his days on earth. He lived to an old age and died on a small water course then going by the name of Bayo Bartholomew, a tributary stream of Washita River. I was passing through that part of country in the summer of 1819 and stopped one night with his aged widow who was at that time living at the same place where he died and appeared to be stirring around quite brisk and lively, though she must have been something near (80) eighty years old. I have been told that she never had any offspring and never was married but the one time. I have never heard from the old lady since the time I was at her house. My Mother Wineford Fish was Grandfather Birney's eldest child. Betsy next oldest married Richard Long and settled in Western Virginia on waters of Clinch River, Russell County some twenty miles from where the Town of Abingdon now stands. They continued to reside at the same place a considerable number of years, and there he died and left her a widow at an advanced age, and consequently she moved to Alabama and there died at the house of James Long her oldest son, a wealthy cotton planter.

Uncle John Birney the oldest of Grandfather's sons moved to Louisiana and settled on Big Red River near to Alexandria many years ago and was said to be gaining of wealth very fast for several years before he was killed by one of his own negro men who shot him through a window of his dwelling one night while the family were at supper. He bore the name of being a sensible and respectable man and was a farmer by occupation and had served as a member of the Legislature of that State. I have been informed that he left several children that were minors at the time of his death. I heard that the negro who killed him was tried in court and sentenced to burn to death.

Next in rotation of Grandfather's children was Uncle David Birney who was settled and living in Tennessee about fifty years ago on Cumberland River, some where below Nashville, but, I am not prepared at this time to give any particular account as to the number and description of his children.

Uncle William Birney (Grandfather's youngest son) went to Louisiana and settled in the same county where his father was living. I was at his house in June 1819 and stopped with his family for several days at a time when he was away from home trying to improve his health at Warm Springs which is situated high up on Washita River, some three hundred miles above where his family were then living. His wife had been dead several years prior to the time I was at his house and he never married again. He was occupying a cotton farm, had several slaves and appeared to be in a better condition than most of his neighbors. He was at that time, and had formerly, been afflicted with a breast disease, which terminated his existence not very long after I was there. He had only six children, three sons and three daughters, all of them grown or nearly so and were living with their father at the time of death.

Aunt Jane, the youngest of Grandfather Birney's children, married a man by the name of Patterson and settled in Kentucky near the Yellow Banks on Ohio River, where she died and left her husband with a family of their small children to raise. I suppose her death occurred upward of fifty years ago and the last account I had of him he war married to his second wife.

I presume that I would not be able to give you very interesting information in regard to my brothers and sisters as your Father was one of the number and you having been personally acquainted with all of them excepting your two Uncles, Thomas and David, who I believe had left Kentucky before you were Born. Consequently you never have seen either of them. Your Uncle Thomas was the first Deputy Surveyor that ever done business of that kind in the County of Rockcastle about the year 1810 and 1811. William Smith (his brother in law) being principle surveyor at that time. In the fall of 1812 while our Government was engaged at war with Great Britton and their Indian allies, the latter became very troublesome to our frontier settlers [illegible] River and Lakes of Canada. Consequently the Governor of Kentucky issued a call for Volunteers in order to repel the savages, and in a short time a Brigade numbering over 2000 Mounted Troops were proceeding on their way to Wabash River in order to be mustered into service at Vincense. Your Uncle Moses with his elder Brother (William Fish) joined a company that went on this expedition and served a short tour of duty as Rangers being detached for the purpose of guarding the inhabitants on waters of Wabash beyond where the savages had lately been killing and scalping of men, women and children in Indiana Territory and after obtaining an honorable discharge from the army both of them immediately returned home to Kentucky where your Uncle William continued to reside the remainder of his days. He was Justice of the Peace, a member of Rockcastle County Court and captain of a Militia Companyat the time and after he had served as a private in the Army, also was promoted to the office of Colonel of the 79th Regiment of Kentucky Militia. He closed his official career by filling the office of High Sheriff of Rockcastle County, under whom I acted as Deputy for his term of two years which expired at the end of 1821. At the times of his filling those different stations they were considered to be quite honorable, but at the present time and for a few years past it appears as though most of the highest functionaries in our government have been disgracing the offices they were pretending to fill.

Your uncle Moses Fish bore the name of being a young man of uncommon steady habits and was considered by our parents to be the most sensible one of all their sons. He seemed to have a considerable inclination to travel and had a particular desire to visit some of our maternal relatives who were then a portion of them living in Mississippi and others in Louisiana. Consequently he left home in the Spring of 1823 and proceeded directly to Boonsborough and there embarked on a [illegible] Flat boat which was loaded with cargo of Tobacco, etc., on which he descended on the Kentucky, Ohio, Mississippi Rivers to the City of Natchez, and after landing at that place and leaving the Boat he visited his grand Uncle (David Birney) an old settler then living some five or six miles from the City, and was bearing the name of a respectable citizen and was thought to be in a good condition as to property, etc. and after remaining several days at the house of Uncle David he set out and traveled about fifty or sixty miles across the country in a westwardly direction to where Uncle William Birney (a brother to our Mother) was then living some ten or twelve miles from the old post of Washeta which is now known by name of Monroe Court house, it being the county seat of Washeta County in the State of Louisiana.

After arriving at Uncle William Birneys and remaining and laboring for wages mostly on a farm, he then changed his occupation and went to trading on water and running a Keel Boat until he finally ascended Washita River a distance of some 300 miles (by way of the river) and took up his residence in Clark County not far from where Arkadelphia is now situated, and where he was living at the time Arkansas Territory was established in the year 1819. And in the same year he was appointed and commissioned by the Governor to fill the Office of Justice of the Peace and afterwards was elected to represent the people of Clark County and served in the lower branch of the first Legislative body that ever assembled in that Territory. There was a very peculiar incident occurred at the time of his election and as I never heard of a similar circumstance before nor since, I have concluded to report it/~~in~~ in this short biographical sketch. It so happened that he did not lose a solitary vote in the Township where he was living although he had two competitors and one of them a Doctor in good standing. Subsequently he was married to a Miss Emily Hemphill with whom I was personally acquainted in the year 1819 when I was detained in that country on account of sickness and being confined at her Mother's house in time of my worst affliction. Emily (who afterwards became his wife, appeared to possess a very mild disposition, had good education and was generally respected. I returned to Kentucky in the spring of

of their marriage and was subsequently informed that the Legislature of that Territory had lately abolished the Circuit Court System and that your Uncle Thomas Fish was then acting under an appointment as Judge of a Quarterly Court with the jurisdiction formerly appertaining to the Judges of Circuit Courts. I suppose he was holding the Judgeship when taken down with a disease in his side of which he died about the year 1823, leaving his wife without any children, they never having but one and that he outlived.

Your Uncle David Fish also emigrated to that country by water in the Spring of 1817 and became a citizen of Clark County and followed cutting and ~~fx~~ rafting of cypress trees out of Ouachita River which he generally was selling down on t coast of the Mississippi for a few years before he was married to Miss Hariet Hemphill, a sister to your Uncle Thomas' wife, and who appeared to be a clever kind hearted woman with tolerable good education and was well esteemed. I have been informed that he was occupying a good farm of his own and was also running a cotton gin until the spring of 1832, and he shipped a cargo of cotton down to New Orleans and while there was struck with Cholera where he died and was buried in a public cemetery belonging to the City. Some few years previously to his death I was informed that he had served one or two terms as Senator in the General Assembly of that Territory. He was cut off in the prime of life being about forty years of age and left his wife with only one child a small daughter and the last time I heard from them they were both in bad health, and in all probability are now dead.

Yours with due regard,

Jesse Fish

Dear Nephew:

After a considerable delay I have at length made an effort to comply with your request to write out a short biographical sketch of your father's ancestors and a few of his brothers with whom you never had an opportunity to form a personal acquaintance, and my narative being composed in such disconnected order it may probably fall something short of all the information that you desire to obtain but it is about all I am able to impart at the present time on that subject, and should you think worth while to do so you can copy and leave out all the surplusage if there be any you do not wish to retain. So far as relates to our Grand and Great Grandfathers and their immediate descendants my information was mostly obtained from Mother at a time when her memory appeared to be sound and clear, and a greater portion of the facts I have stated concerning my Father's and Mother's family were obtained by my own personal knowledge. If you should wish to learn anything further concerning your Uncles with whom you have had a long acquaintance and anything more concerning your Father that may be in my knowledge, you can write to me on that subject and be answered in a short time. I have failed to give you any particular information respecting of them for the reason I have named and said but little in relation to my self on account of not wishing to be my own historian. I want you to let me hear if you receive this and the other document and also let me hear how you and the people of Crab Orchard are genearly getting along. I am pleased at any time to hear from that part of the Country and feel a particular interest in hearing how brother John Fish's old widow is making out and if anybody is living in the house with her, and I am also very anxious to hear what John H. Carson is driving at and how he and all his children are doing, [illegible] friends and connections in old Rockcastle are careless about writing to me, I would like for you to give all the late information from that quarter that you conveniently can and say whether you think Robert is now holding his own or losing of money since the [illegible] of the present financial depression...

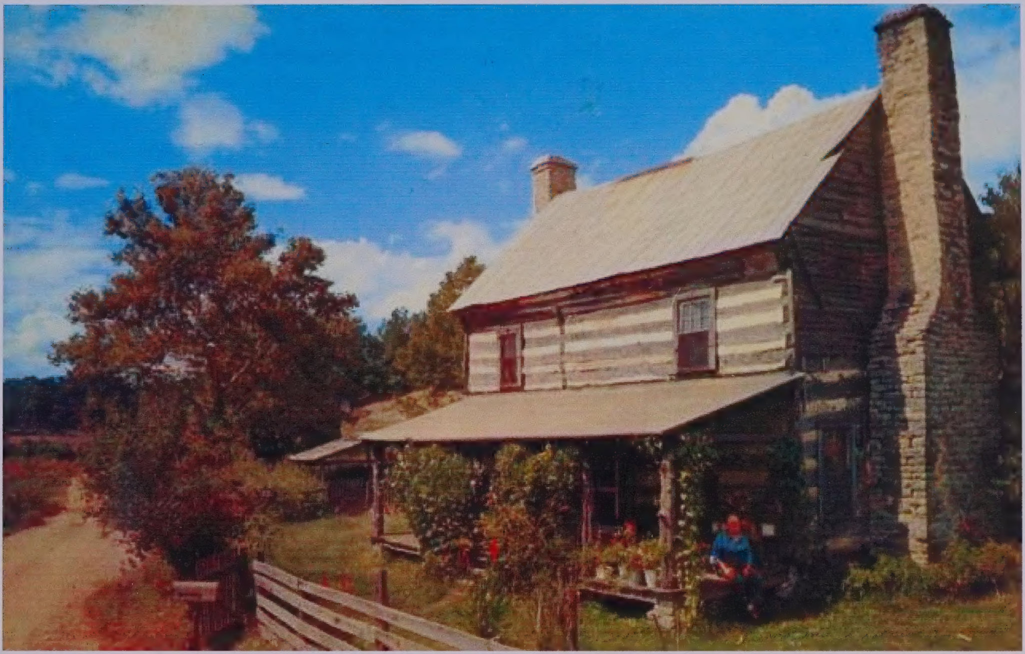
Aunt Polly House

Photographs Home



This is Harry Chasteen sitting on the porch. He survived his wife by several years and lived in this house almost until his death. The house was moved to Renfro Valley. It is the Aunt Polly House Gift Shop across Hummel Road from Renfro Valley complex.

From the book by John Lair "Rockcastle Roots"
This old log house built by Col. William Fish around the time of the War of 1812 is now restored to its original condition. It was intended by Mr. Lair that this place was to serve as a home for The Renfro Valley County Music Hall of Fame, which he expected to open to the public some time during 1975.

Introduction

Home

I would like to introduce myself to you as your Rockcastle County KyGenweb coordinator. My name is Jennifer Kidwell Fish. I was born and raised in Rockcastle County, the eldest of four daughters to James Kidwell & Charlene Barnett. I currently live in the neighboring Madison County, but all of my family, except for a sister, still lives in Rockcastle County. I am fairly new to genealogy, but have grown to love the work. I started researching my family tree just before Christmas of 2001. I downloaded a family tree program from the internet and off I went.

I am here to help in any way that I can. Please contact me if you need assistance or would like to contribute to the site.

Hon. John M. Fish, a native of Rockcastle County, Ky., was born September 19, 1820. His father, James Fish, was born in South Carolina in 1790, came to Kentucky with his father when quite young and settled in Madison County, but afterward moved to Rockcastle County, where he followed farming and blacksmithing all his life. His wife was Sarah (Roberts) Fish, and she was the mother of six children, only three of whom are living, viz: Marenda W., John M. and James S. The parents both died in Rockcastle County. John M. Fish was reared on the farm and received his education in the common school. He has always been a prominent man in his native county, and in 1870 was elected county judge of the county, serving one term. In August, 1875, he was elected to the Legislature, representing Rockcastle and Laurel Counties one term. He owns about 600 acres of land in Rockcastle County, and devotes the same to general farming. November 1, 1847, he married Miss Margaret A. Cook, of Rockcastle County, and they have six children, as follows: Sarah E., Mary M., Hiram R., Martha J., John B. and George C.. Politically Mr. Fish is a Democrat.

Albert T. Fish

Biographies Home

Kentucky: A History of the State, Perrin, Battle, Kniffin, 4th ed., 1887, Madison County.

ALBERT T. FISH was born February 18, 1859, in Rockcastle County, Ky., and is a son of A. T. and Samantha (Haley) Fish, to whom five sons and six daughters were born, and who were also born in Rockcastle County, near Mt. Vernon. The father was a son of Jesse and Eveline (Anderson) Fish, natives of Garrard and Lincoln Counties, respectively. Jesse Fish was born in 1796 and served as surveyor and judge of Rockcastle County, whence he had moved with his parents when a lad. He reared four sons and one daughter by his first marriage. His second wife was Mrs. Mary Butner, whose maiden name was Hubbard. The issue of this second marriage was one son. She had born by her former husband four sons and one daughter. Jesse Fish died in September, 1883, and was a son of Thomas Fish, who married a Givins. They came from Virginia as early as 1790, and settled in Garrard County, afterward in Rockcastle County. They reared a family of seven sons and three daughters. Thomas Fish was of English origin, in politics a Whig, and died at the ripe age of eighty-five. Mrs. Samantha Fish was a daughter of John and Matilda (Lankford) Haley, who were early settlers of Rockcastle County, and reared a large family of children. Mr. Haley was a substantial farmer and slave owner, served as a common soldier in the war of 1812 and died early in life. His widow still survives him. Albert T. Fish was reared on a farm and received such an education as the common schools of his neighborhood afforded, sufficient to enable him to teach in the common schools of Rockcastle. When he arrived at maturity he engaged in the mercantile business at Berea, where he has been successfully engaged ever since. He has the largest and most extensive business in Berea, and by his energies and industry he has made life a success. In February, 1880, he was united in marriage to Jennie Galloway, a daughter of Frank and Arminta (Kerly) Galloway, natives of Madison County. The issue from this happy union was two children, Addie and Grover C. Mrs. Fish is a member of the F. & A. M. and in politics is a Democrat.

Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, ed. 8-B, Rockcastle County

William M. Fish was born in Rockcastle County, Ky., November 16, 1828. His father, William Fish, a native of North Carolina, but of English descent, was the eldest son of Thomas and Winnifred (Burney) Fish, natives of England. William Fish, father of our subject, was a farmer in Rockcastle County, Ky. all his life, and was a man of considerable prominence in political and social affairs. About 1820 he was made sheriff of the county. He also served as a Colonel in the State militia. His wife, Annie, was born in Lincoln County, Ky. and was a daughter of Nathaniel Logan, of Irish descent. They had four children, viz: Sarah J., Harriet, William M. and John T.. He and his wife lived to a good old age, and died in Rockcastle County, members of the Christian Church. Col. William Fish had been married before he married Annie Logan,--married Sallie Maret, and had four children by his first wife, viz: Winnifred, Margaret, Stephen G. and Burnetta. William M. Fish was reared and educated in Rockcastle County, Ky. and from boyhood has devoted the greater part of his time to agricultural pursuits, owning a fine farm in Rockcastle County. In 1862 he was elected county court clerk at Mount Vernon, and the following year was appointed Deputy United States Marshal, holding both offices for about three months. He resigned and was appointed Internal Revenue Assistant Assessor, and held this office for a number of years. He then held no office until 1873, when he was elected circuit clerk, to which office he has been re-elected once in six years ever since. His political preference is the Republican party, and he has always taken an active part in politics. December 8, 1856, he married Talitha T., a daughter of William and Charity (Lawrence) French, of Rockcastle County, Ky. Six children have blessed their union, viz: Mary L., Thomas J., Hattie J., Jones P., Charity A. and Marion G. Mr. Fish is a member of the F. & A.M. fraternity, and has been since the year 1857.

James L. White, a native of Crab Orchard, Lincoln County, Ky., was born November 27, 1851. His father, Thomas C. White, a native of Claiborne County, Tenn., moved to Lincoln County, Ky., when young, where he has followed farming ever since; he is a stone-mason by trade, to which trade he has devoted considerable attention. He married Rhoda Lane, also a native of Claiborne County, Tenn., and they were the parents of six children, viz: James L., William P., Sarah J., K.B., Maggie T. and Robert C. James L. White was reared on the farm and educated in his native county. In 1874 he moved to Rockcastle County and devoted his time to agricultural pursuits until 1881, when he was appointed sheriff of Rockcastle County by H. H. Baker, in which capacity he served until January, 1887. In August, 1886, he was elected sheriff of the county and assumed the duties of that office January 1, 1887. He also carries on an extensive mercantile business at Mount Vernon. February 4, 1875, he married Liddie F. Baker, a daughter of Harris and Miranda (McQuary) Baker, of Rockcastle County. Five children have been born to them, viz: W.T. White, Harris H., Rhoda M., James G. and Robert P. Mr. White votes with the Republicans.

Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, ed. 8-B, Rockcastle County

Mason C. Miller, county clerk of Rockcastle County, Ky., was born in Mount Vernon, same county, July 12, 1836. His father, Mason C. Miller, Sr., a native of Jessamine County, Ky., was born about 1800, and moved to Mount Vernon, Rockcastle County, at an early date, where he was engaged in mercantile pursuits until his death. His wife was Elizabeth (Stigall) Miller, and they were the parents of six children, viz: James F., Milton J., Mary, Elizabeth, Georgiana and Mason C. The parents were both members of the Christian Church. Mason C. Miller, subject of this sketch, was reared and educated in Mount Vernon. In early life he followed farming, and about 1858 he was engaged in merchandising at Mount Vernon, which occupation he pursued until the out-break of the war. He then entered the Federal army as First Lieutenant of Company B, Fourth Kentucky Infantry, under command of Col Speed S. Fry, and served twelve months. He then joined the Fourteenth Kentucky Cavalry as First Lieutenant of Company B, served his term of enlistment, and was discharged at Maysville, Ky. He then returned to Mount Vernon, where he again engaged in merchandising and continued the same until 1882, when he was elected county clerk of Rockcastle County, served one term and was re-elected in 1886. November 15, 1856, he married Miss Paulina J. Owens, a daughter of Wilson Owens, of Rockcastle County. Mrs. Miller died in 1866, leaving two children, James W. and Emma. In 1867 Mr. Miller married Miss Louisa Oreer, a daughter of John D. Oreer, of Montgomery County, Ky. Six children have blessed their union, viz: Georgiana, Mason C., Eliza, John D., Bessie and Lula. His second wife died May 15, 1885, and April 22, 1886, Mr. Miller married Elizabeth Hays, a daughter of Alfred Hauk, of Rockcastle County. Mr. Miller is a member of the Christian Church, of the F.& A.M., and also of the I.O.O.F. Politically he is a Republican.

John,

My husband, Andrew Fish, is related to your wife. He was a 1st cousin, 4 times removed to Almira Fish. I would be interested in her lineage, if you wouldn't mind sharing!! Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you!!!

> I am married to Mary Catherine Stigall. Her Great Great Grandparents were: James Jefferson Stigall & Almira (Alvira) Fish. Almira's parents were John & Mary (Hiatt) Fish. Could she also be related to you??? My Great Grand parents : Christopher & Martha (Adams) Baker were married at Mt Vernon. My roots are from the same area. My Granma Beachie Baker was born at Crab Orchard Along with Mary's Dad. Morris Allen Stigall.Scarboroughs are in my family too.

Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, ed. 8-B, Rockcastle County

William M. Fish was born in Rockcastle County, Ky., November 16, 1828. His father, William Fish, a native of North Carolina, but of English descent, was the eldest son of Thomas and Winnifred (Burney) Fish, natives of England. William Fish, father of our subject, was a farmer in Rockcastle County, Ky. all his life, and was a man of considerable prominence in political and social affairs. About 1820 he was made sheriff of the county. He also served as a Colonel in the State militia. His wife, Annie, was born in Lincoln County, Ky. and was a daughter of Nathaniel Logan, of Irish descent. They had four children, viz: Sarah J., Harriet, William M. and John T.. He and his wife lived to a good old age, and died in Rockcastle County, members of the Christian Church. Col. William Fish had been married before he married Annie Logan,--married Sallie Maret, and had four children by his first wife, viz: Winnifred, Margaret, Stephen G. and Burnetta. William M. Fish was reared and educated in Rockcastle County, Ky. and from boyhood has devoted the greater part of his time to agricultural pursuits, owning a fine farm in Rockcastle County. In 1862 he was elected county court clerk at Mount Vernon, and the following year was appointed Deputy United States Marshal, holding both offices for about three months. He resigned and was appointed Internal Revenue Assistant Assessor, and held this office for a number of years. He then held no office until 1873, when he was elected circuit clerk, to which office he has been re-elected once in six years ever since. His political preference is the Republican party, and he has always taken an active part in politics. December 8, 1856, he married Talitha T., a daughter of William and Charity (Lawrence) French, of Rockcastle County, Ky. Six children have blessed their union, viz: Mary L., Thomas J., Hattie J., Jones P., Charity A. and Marion G. Mr. Fish is a member of the F. & A.M. fraternity, and has been since the year 1857.

Albert T. Fish

Biographies Home

Kentucky: A History of the State, Perrin, Battle, Kniffin, 4th ed., 1887, Madison County.

ALBERT T. FISH was born February 18, 1859, in Rockcastle County, Ky., and is a son of A. T. and Samantha (Haley) Fish, to whom five sons and six daughters were born, and who were also born in Rockcastle County, near Mt. Vernon. The father was a son of Jesse and Eveline (Anderson) Fish, natives of Garrard and Lincoln Counties, respectively. Jesse Fish was born in 1796 and served as surveyor and judge of Rockcastle County, whence he had moved with his parents when a lad. He reared four sons and one daughter by his first marriage. His second wife was Mrs. Mary Butner, whose maiden name was Hubbard. The issue of this second marriage was one son. She had born by her former husband four sons and one daughter. Jesse Fish died in September, 1883, and was a son of Thomas Fish, who married a Givins. They came from Virginia as early as 1790, and settled in Garrard County, afterward in Rockcastle County. They reared a family of seven sons and three daughters. Thomas Fish was of English origin, in politics a Whig, and died at the ripe age of eighty-five. Mrs. Samantha Fish was a daughter of John and Matilda (Lankford) Haley, who were early settlers of Rockcastle County, and reared a large family of children. Mr. Haley was a substantial farmer and slave owner, served as a common soldier in the war of 1812 and died early in life. His widow still survives him. Albert T. Fish was reared on a farm and received such an education as the common schools of his neighborhood afforded, sufficient to enable him to teach in the common schools of Rockcastle. When he arrived at maturity he engaged in the mercantile business at Berea, where he has been successfully engaged ever since. He has the largest and most extensive business in Berea, and by his energies and industry he has made life a success. In February, 1880, he was united in marriage to Jennie Galloway, a daughter of Frank and Arminta (Kerly) Galloway, natives of Madison County. The issue from this happy union was two children, Addie and Grover C. Mrs. Fish is a member of the F. & A. M. and in politics is a Democrat.

Kentucky: A History of the State, Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, ed. 8-B, Rockcastle County

Hon. John M. Fish, a native of Rockcastle County, Ky., was born September 19, 1820. His father, James Fish, was born in South Carolina in 1790, came to Kentucky with his father when quite young and settled in Madison County, but afterward moved to Rockcastle County, where he followed farming and blacksmithing all his life. His wife was Sarah (Roberts) Fish, and she was the mother of six children, only three of whom are living, viz: Marenda W., John M. and James S. The parents both died in Rockcastle County. John M. Fish was reared on the farm and received his education in the common school. He has always been a prominent man in his native county, and in 1870 was elected county judge of the county, serving one term. In August, 1875, he was elected to the Legislature, representing Rockcastle and Laurel Counties one term. He owns about 600 acres of land in Rockcastle County, and devotes the same to general farming. November 1, 1847, he married Miss Margaret A. Cook, of Rockcastle County, and they have six children, as follows: Sarah E., Mary M., Hiram R., Martha J., John B. and George C.. Politically Mr. Fish is a Democrat.
